

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

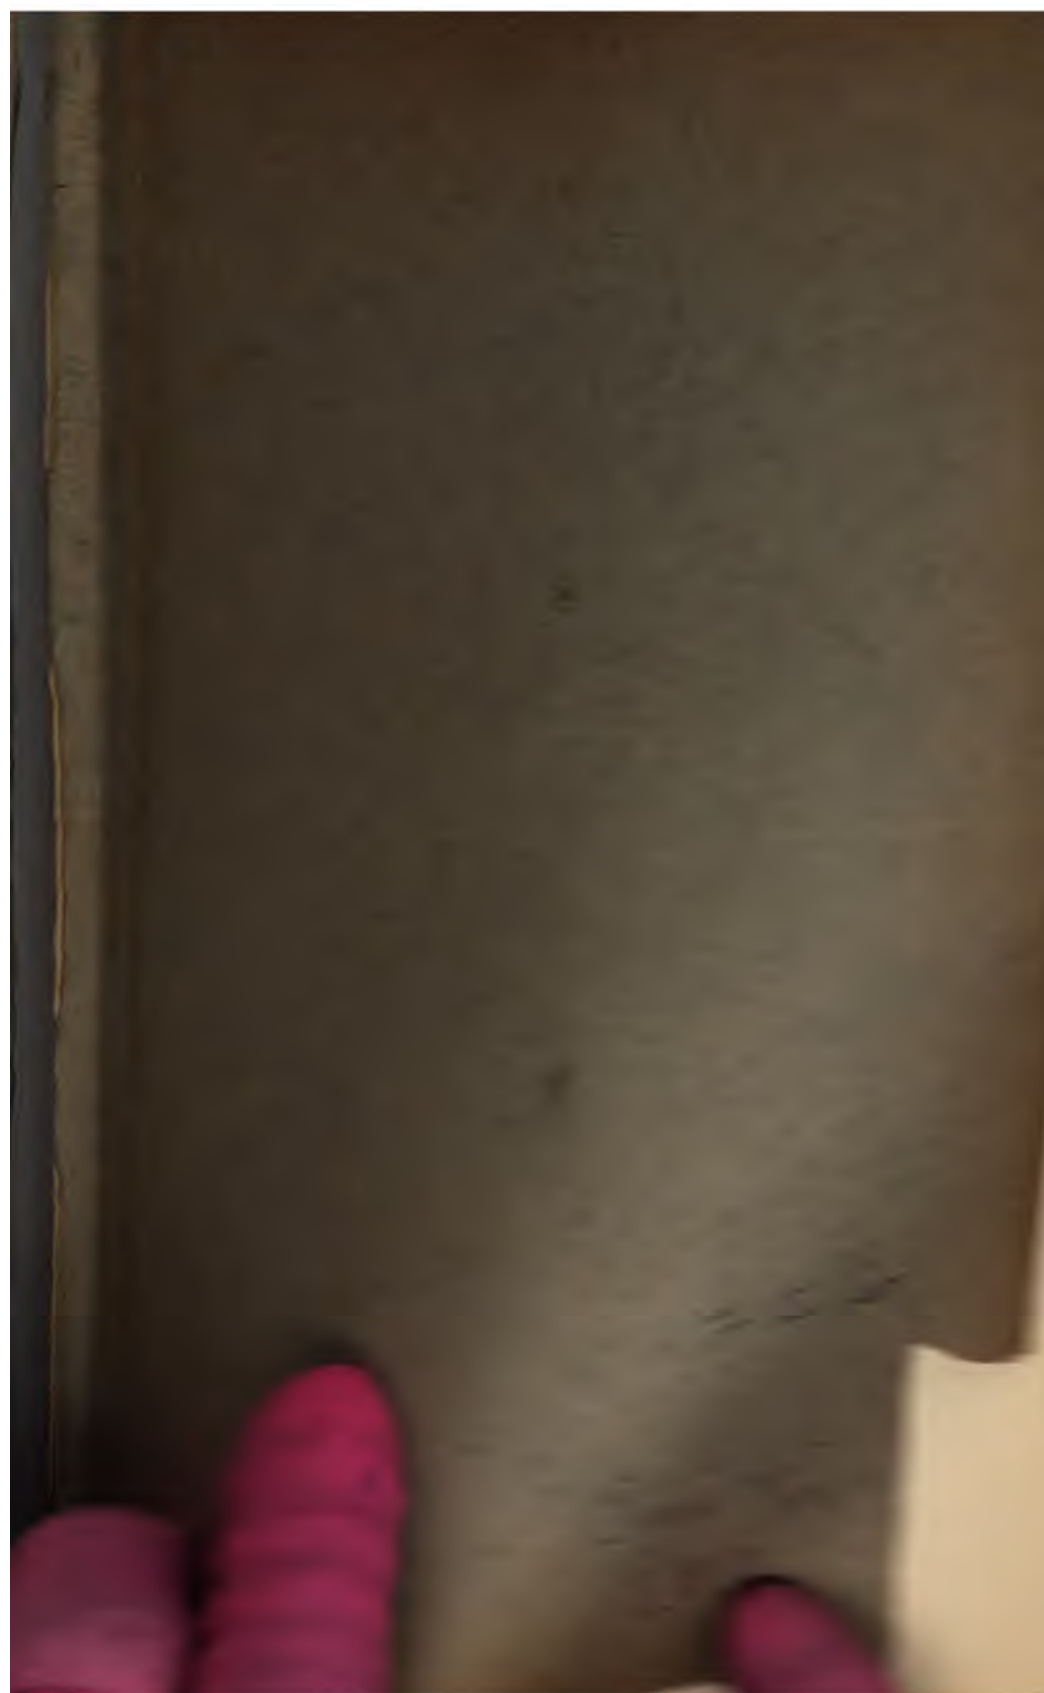

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1793. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

On reassembling, the Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 26, 1898.

The following is a list of the various Trusts :—

Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Bishop and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House, and School House at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $121,478.92, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot, and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82 ; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land and Church Buildings at Cruger's, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land, Church Buildings, and Rectory at Verplanck's, Westchester County, occupied by St. Barnabas Church.

Land and Church Building at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Building at Yonkers, occupied by Christ Church.

Land and Church Building at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500 ; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector, or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Chapel, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the chapel and grounds.

Endowment Fund for the support of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company at the par value of $4,500.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $14,992.50.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000, to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

The term of office of two of the Trustees. Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., and Rev. Cornelius B. Smith, D.D., will expire October 1, 1898, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's Report submitted herewith shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of four hundred and ten thousand six hundred and seventy-three dollars and twenty-four cents ($410,673.24).

Income received and paid out, sixteen thousand four hundred and ninety-one dollars and thirty-eight cents ($16,491.88).

Dated, New York, September 26, 1898.

NUMBER OF BENEFICIARIES.

Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund	27
Widows and Orphans' Fund	37	(Increase, 1)
Life Insurance Fund	50	(“ 2)

Referring to the foregoing figures from the Treasurer's books, the Trustees respectfully report that the present rate of allowances to beneficiaries of the Widows and Orphans' Fund cannot be continued (even at the present rate of 75 percent. of the original allowance granted) unless the clergy of the Diocese interest themselves in securing an increase in the amount of the Thanksgiving collections. The collections of 1897 show a decrease of nearly $1,500 over the collections of the preceding year, while the number of beneficiaries has increased.

With regard to the Life Insurance Fund, the Trustees have recently had their attention called to the practical working of the rules of the fund, in cases where the beneficiary lives for any lengthy period beyond the term fixed by the insurance tables as the expectation of his length of life. By the rules of the fund the half of the premium paid by the Trustees is considered as a loan to the beneficiary, without interest, and is secured by the assignment of his policy to the Trustees. Upon his death, the advances to the beneficiary are deducted from the proceeds of the policy, and the balance is paid to his wife or family.

In the case of any beneficiary who lives beyond the date when the half of the total premiums which have been loaned to him exceeds half of the face of his policy, the advances made by the Trustees are an actual detriment, since they are a lien upon and are eventually deducted from the half of the insurance paid for by the beneficiary himself, with the result that in many cases the beneficiary receives less after having insured by means of aid from this fund than he would have received if he had taken a policy for half of the amount of insurance, and paid the premiums from his own resources. The time when this point is reached varies, of course, with the age at which the beneficiary has taken out a policy, and is reached sooner in the case of older men, but it is nevertheless eventually reached in every case when the insured lives beyond the expectation of his life, as given in the tables. The only persons, therefore, whom the fund materially benefits are those who die within a few years after they have taken out a policy by means of aid from the fund.

It is evident that this defect in the scheme, which was not noticed at the time it was started, makes it extremely doubtful whether the Convention should continue to ask for it the support of the Diocese. Moreover, the fact that since its inception in 1886 only fifty clergymen have taken advantage of its benefits, shows that it has not met any real need of any large proportion of the clergy.

The Trustees, therefore, after serious discussion, have decided to recommend to the Convention that the plan be abandoned, and that after payment of the obligations payable by the Trustees on October 1, 1898, no further aid be extended to the clergy of the Diocese for the payment of life insurance premiums.

If this recommendation be adopted, it will be necessary to amend the Canon on this subject by omitting the provisions for the carrying on of this object, and the Trustees should also be empowered to apply for legislation amending their charter accordingly.

The Trustees further submit to the Convention, if it should decide to abandon the plan, the question of what disposition should be made of the policies now assigned by the beneficiaries to the Trustees, as security for advances made for premiums. The total amount advanced up to this date is $18,535.78, the largest amount to any beneficiary being $1,695.09, and the average amount to each of the fifty beneficiaries being about $360. There is no legal obligation to continue the payment to any beneficiary, since the Trustees have expressly reserved the right in every case to decrease or discontinue the allowance at any time.

It seems to the Trustees, however, that, in view of the encouragement to insure held out to the clergy by the establishment of the fund, the Convention should not allow any beneficiary to suffer by its discontinuance now.

They are therefore of the opinion, and hereby recommend, that the advances heretofore considered as loans should now be made gifts to the various beneficiaries, and that the policies should be re-assigned to the beneficiaries free and clear of the lien of the Trustees for any advances heretofore made. If this recommendation be adopted, the beneficiaries may, at their option, continue at their own expense the insurance which they now carry, or they can make satisfactory arrangements with the companies to carry hereafter only half the amount, receiving, in most cases, in addition, a paid-up policy for a portion of the other half which will represent a considerably larger amount than they would have received if the amount of the advances by the Trustees remained deductible at their deaths.

In pursuance of these recommendations, the Trustees present the following resolutions for action by the Convention :

1. Resolved, That the plan for facilitating the effecting of life insurance by clergymen of the Diocese, adopted by the Convention of 1886, be discontinued.
2. Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be instructed to report to the Convention such amendments to Canon XIX. as may be necessary by reason of the discontinuance of said plan.
3. Resolved, That the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen be instructed to make no further payments on account of said plan, after the payment of those amounts which shall become due on October 1, 1898.

4. Resolved, That the said Trustees be instructed to apply to the next Legislature of the State of New York for such amendments to the charter of the corporation as may be necessary by reason of the discontinuance of said plan.

5. Resolved, That the moneys advanced by the said Trustees to the several beneficiaries of the Life Insurance Fund, as loans, on the security of their respective policies, be and they hereby are made gifts to the said several beneficiaries.

6. Resolved, That the said Trustees be authorized and instructed to reassign to the said beneficiaries the policies now held by them, and to execute such other instruments as may be necessary to release and discharge any claim for advances which may have heretofore existed in favor of said Trustees.

7. Resolved, That the said Trustees be instructed to divide any balance of legacies or donations which may remain to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund, after the payments of the amounts due on October 1, 1898, equally between the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen and the Fund for Widows and Children of Clergymen, and to pay over any balance of annual collections which may remain to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund to the Fund for Widows and Orphans of Clergymen.

Mr. Beall offered the following resolution, which was not adopted :

Resolved, That the report of the Trustees be printed, and made the order of the day for to-morrow at 12 o'clock noon.

On motion, the resolutions appended to the report, with the exception of the seventh, were adopted separately.

On motion, the seventh resolution was referred to a special committee to report to the next Convention.

The Bishop appointed as such committee :

MR. GEORGE COPPELL.
MR. DALLAS B. PRATT.	MR. HAMILTON L. HOPPIN.

The Rev. Frank M. S. Taylor presented the following report :

The committee of the Convention, appointed by the Bishop, to confer with the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, in reference to a modification of the conditions of application for the benefits of that fund, would report that in conference with the Trustees they were met with a readiness to make any necessary change, which was thoroughly appreciated, the result being that a resolution was passed by the Trustees to do away entirely with the objectionable features of the present form of application and to substitute therefor a declaration, drawn by the Bishop, the terms of which, while guarding sufficiently the fund itself, will eliminate completely the idea of any humiliation on the part of the applicant.

Your Committee would ask for the hearty appreciation of this act of the Trustees on the part of the clergy of the Diocese, and their earnest, enthusiastic forwarding of all efforts made toward the necessary increase of this important fund.

Respectfully submitted,

F. M. S. TAYLOR,

The Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 15, 1898.

Henry Martyn, whose great work was the heroic expression of great thoughts, has said that "the spirit of Christ is the spirit of missions, and the nearer we get to Him the more intensely missionary we become." We may well believe that the Churchmen of New York who organized our City Mission Society sixty-five years ago had no smaller conception of the Church idea, and were wise enough to understand that the missionary spirit could nowhere have more urgent tasks for its exercise than here among the growing multitudes of many tongues. But it seems scarcely probable that they could have foreseen the increasing magnitude of opportunities for the Society's service which we see to-day. It was doubtless expected that other agencies of the Church would be multiplied for similar service, and as a matter of fact this has, in a measure, though most inadequately, come to pass. It is a notable and encouraging feature of years more or less recent, that they have been marked by an awakening of parishes to their responsibility to overflow their own borders, like water springs in a dry ground, and redeem some waste of human life near by. And the work which many of our parishes are now doing at their chapels and schools and mission houses for the congregation of Christ's poor is a proof that the spirit of missions is in the wheels of parochial organisms more than ever before. But the mission field of the city which they do not touch is not only wide, but every day growing wider. Many districts in which the moral and physical environment of homes of deep poverty is deplorable, and to which no small proportion of some of the worst elements of immigration are continually drifting, are apparently as unsought and undiscovered by our parochial system as if they were in some strange land beyond the seas. And it is in such districts as well as in the public hospitals, asylums, and prisons of the city that the City Mission finds its sphere. It is a matter of profound regret that this large area, particularly that part of it which lies in densely populated neighborhoods where ignorance and irreligion are most strongly entrenched, is not traversed by a missionary activity more worthy of the Church's power in this community; but our Society has much cause to be thankful for the generous offerings which have so long enabled it to maintain and enlarge its share in this ministry of light to them that sit in darkness.

A much valued part of those offerings during the past year has, as usual, consisted of voluntary services which not a few clergymen and parishioners of city churches and chapels have been pleased to place at our disposal from time to time as a token of their sympathy. We have also continued to be favored with numerous gifts of books, periodicals, clothing, delicacies for the sick, and other useful and much needed supplies, as reported in detail in the monthly editions of the Mission News. The money received has been as follows:

Church collections	$19,060 51
Contributions	15,571 88
Interest, rents, and dividends	8,677 55
Fresh Air Fund	2,620 35
Festival Fund	2,217 00
Mission News subscriptions, etc	911 75
Legacies	1,120 00
Total	$50,178 54

These figures are another year's fitting reminder of the proverb: "For a web begun God sends thread."

In addition to the foregoing amount received in the form of legacies, the Society has been richly favored by the late Charles H. Contoit, Esq., under whose will the particular work at St. Barnabas' House and the general work of the Society are each to receive one-nineteenth of his residuary estate, which is expected to be very large, though we have not yet received any information from trustworthy sources as to its probable value. Besides the sum of $8,000 which has been received from the late Miss Edson's estate, in behalf of our Italian Mission—not included in the foregoing statement of receipts because received by the corporation of that Mission and not by our Treasurer—it is estimated that the sum of $12,000 will be forthcoming under her will for the same object. The late Miss Caroline Talman has remembered the Society in her will to the amount of $5,000 for the general work, and $2,000 for St. Barnabas' House, but our treasurer has not yet received these sums from the executors.

The year 1897-1898, in view of these facts alone, has thus been one of peculiar encouragement. And we cannot let such an opportunity as this go by without some expression of our sense of profound gratefulness. Nor does it seem less fitting to express the hope that others who are still in the land of the living, and to whom it is given to be stewards of abundance, may be mindful of "poverty's meek woe" when they set their seal to the last will and testament which is to dispose of their earthly riches. It was a fine thing for Douglas to fling the silver-cased heart of Bruce among the Saracens to spur the Scots to follow it, but it is a finer thing for one's own heart to reach beyond the grave in works of mercy, and in victories for righteousness and peace.

Much of our success in the past has been due to the friendly spirit with which Rectors and Vicars have welcomed our representative to their pulpits. We have thus been favored with excellent opportunities, not only to make our annual appeal for contributions, but to tell something of our work in a form more apt to be interesting and impressive than that of a written report. We trust also that our public missionary meetings may be said to have produced strong word pictures and brought out more vividly to many minds the deep meaning of the call to their sympathy and coöperation. Two such meetings were held last year, the first at St. Andrew's Church, Harlem, on Sunday evening, November 21st, and the other at Calvary Church, on Sunday evening, December 5th. Bishop Potter, the President of the Society, presided on both occasions. At the first meeting his address was followed by addresses from the Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., the Rev. Brockholst Morgan, and Mr. Silas McBee, of St. Andrew's Brotherhood. At the second meeting the speakers were Bishop Potter, the Rev. Wm. H. Vibbert, D.D., Mr. Wm. H. Sage, and the Superintendent of the Society.

One of the side lights which these meetings threw upon the City Mission was their testimony of its value as an auxiliary of law and order. It is possible for men who count themselves good citizens to recognize the importance of public schools and a strong police system in such a city as ours, and yet to be blind to the fact that one of the mightiest factors in the problem of the city's welfare is the religious influence that makes the understanding heart and binds upon it a better and surer spell than that of force. Governor Seymour, in his address at the formal opening of the present House of Refuge in 1854, said: "The unwritten laws of religious nurture, of moral culture and of virtuous education will ever be found a sure dependence, and will constitute the very bonds and ligaments of the State when the enactments of the legislator shall be found vain and inefficient."

If the City Mission were engaged in no other task and had no other reason for its existence, it would still deserve unstinted support from all good citizens, whatever their creed or lack of creed, because of its work among hundreds of wayward boys and girls in the Reformatory on Randall's Island and among the dismal ranks of a hundred thousand men and women who, in the course of a single year, are recruited by the workhouse and the prison. It has been said of the noble Howard that he went down below the surface of the earth into cells without a lamp or a window, or other ventilation than that which a funnel could give, and there made use of his measuring line and thermometer in order more accurately to describe the wretched condition of the prisoners and impress upon those in power his plea for reform. Happily we have no such dungeons in these more merciful days, but what Howard did for the prisoner's physical life our Missionaries are daily trying to do for the prisoner's spiritual life. With line upon line, and precept upon precept, they go down into the thoughts of the imaginations of the heart that has made its home in dark and cruel habitations of its own ignorant or wilful choice. At the Tombs Prison, Ludlow Street Jail, the Penitentiary, Workhouse, and Jefferson Market Prison, where we have regular religious services once or twice a week, and where our Missionaries are daily on duty, going from cell to cell, and coming face to face with prisoners awaiting trial or serving sentence, the message of hope is spoken —the word of the Lord is heard. These faithful servants of the Church do not always succeed, and indeed it may be said that shepherds of more promising flocks do not always succeed, but in many lives the light they sow springs up with the fruitage of better aims and better deeds. It will surprise no one to hear that they have been particularly encouraged in their labors among young people of both sexes who were just beginning the way of the transgressor. At the House of Refuge, where there are usually about seven hundred boys and two hundred girls, undergoing compulsory discipline, our Missionary, the Rev. Mr. Stockton, one evening last spring, presented for confirmation thirty-seven candidates to whom he had given some months of most loving and painstaking instruction. And though Mr. Stockton has since then accepted a call to the rectorship of a parish in the West, an equally earnest teacher and guide has succeeded him. We cannot conclude this brief mention of a subject of vast, vital importance, without some special reference to one of our most earnest and efficient Missionaries, the Rev. William Lindsay, for some years Chaplain of the Tombs Prison and Ludlow Street Jail. Mr. Lindsay displayed a warmth of sympathy and energy which gave to his difficult task a rare measure of success, and when he resigned three months ago to engage in work in England, he left an excellent pattern of faithfulness for his successors to follow.

A ministry of more pathetic interest and accompanied by more frequent signs of welcome is our mission to hospitals and asylums. At Bellevue Hospital, where, at the adjoining Chapel of Christ the Consoler, we have daily services, there are, on an average, fifteen thousand patients a year. The City Hospital and the Metropolitan Hospital, both on Blackwell's Island, have each an annual register of about seven thousand patients. Our Chaplains labor among these sick multitudes by ministering regularly in the congregation of convalescents, celebrating the Holy Communion in public and in private, and by visiting at the bedside of the suffering and the dying ones to whom the word fitly spoken is good indeed. The largest proportion of these great numbers, being only temporarily disabled, go back, after medical or surgical treatment, to their homes and tasks. We believe that the hospital chaplain not only comforts many of them in their loneliness and distress, but quickens in them hopes and resolves better fitted for life's rough way than those of other days. Other smaller institutions, like the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the Infant Asylum, Harlem Hospital, Gouverneur Hospital, Convalescent Home, Hopper Home, etc., have continued to be the scene of similar endeavors.

At the Almshouse, connected with which our Chapel of the Good Shepherd maintains daily services, about two thousand five hundred persons make their homes. There we see for the most part what appears to be only a pitiable wreckage of human beings seamed and scarred by age and infirmity. Their lives are indeed broken and stranded, so far as any tides of earthly fortune are concerned, but there are many of them who are more the victims of the storm than of the stormy spirit. Anyone who was present at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd last Trinity Sunday afternoon, when the Bishop of the Diocese administered the rite of Confirmation to forty-six of these friendless and aged men and women; or went with him immediately afterward to Almshouse hospitals, where he confirmed six others while they were lying in their beds; or went with him later in the day to Bellevue Hospital, where he confirmed four patients who seemed to belong to what is called the "submerged class," must have been impressed by the thought that even in these places for the destitute, homeless, and forgotten of their fellowmen, God works in mysterious ways, and shows us that the race is not always to the swift, nor the haven of peace always to the life that has known no shipwreck.

We are glad to report that our work at the public Asylums for the Insane on the Islands has been continued during the past year with undiminished interest and activity. As is well known, our Missionaries visit and preach to those only of the inmates who belong to that considerable class of unfortunates whose minds seem in a kind of twilight between the day and the night of sanity and insanity. Whatever may be said of the discouragements in this department of missionary effort, our services of song and plain preaching of the Gospel are surely not all like water spilt on the ground. On the contrary, we have good reason to believe that each occasion refreshes many souls, even if some of them are like "children crying in the night, with no language but a cry."

It is believed that many, particularly women much past middle age, become inmates of these asylums simply because they are not able to keep on bearing the strain of a ceaseless and cheerless struggle to avoid dependence on the public care. The City Mission felicitates itself and its supporters in view of what it has done and is doing to befriend women whose misfortunes have been overwhelming enough to drive them close to the verge of despair. St. Barnabas' House has continued to be a temporary shelter for homeless women and children, and has helped large numbers of the women—many of them widows with little children—to find suitable employment in or out of the city, and thus to take a fresh start with fresh hope. The average daily number of the continually changing household has been over ninety. These beneficiaries have found a spiritual home in St. Barnabas' Chapel, adjoining and communicating with St. Barnabas' House. From forty to sixty of the women can be seen at any time at the chapel services, for which a choir of children is trained at St. Barnabas' House, and all of the children who are old enough are taught in the Sunday School and Kindergarten. We have much cheering proof that this charity has many friends, and this proof was pleasantly strengthened by the large attendance of representative clergy and laity at a reception given at the House one day last spring by the Ladies' Advisory Board, Mrs. George S. Bowdoin, President, and by Miss Mather, Deaconess in charge. During the month of August, St. Barnabas' House was closed for much-needed repairs and improvements. After a thorough overhauling of the plumbing, we put up apparatus for steam heat on the two upper floors, and painted and calcimined the entire interior of the building, a part of the expense being paid by a generous parishioner of Grace Church.

During the past year, God's Providence Mission, with a largely Jewish constituency of five hundred children and older persons, has prospered, like St. Barnabas' House, under a corps of workers of excellent fitness and efficiency. We have received many special gifts for this Mission, including a large Bible, a reredos, prayer desk, and chancel chair for the Chapel, many pictures for the reading-room and schoolrooms, and money for painting and calcimining the Chapel and two stories of the other part of the building. The entire roof of the Chapel, excepting the skylight, has been covered with cement and provided with awnings, so that the children now have there on the housetop, well guarded at the sides, an open-air playground of much attractiveness. The congregations at the Chapel, the Sunday School, Industrial School, Kindergarten, Boys' and Girls' Guilds, have grown in numbers, and these, with the Day Nursery, Cooking School, Girls' Friendly Society, reading-rooms, circulating library, gymnasium, cadets, etc., make this Mission House a varied scene of inspiring interest to anyone whose heart is open to the meaning of this ladder by which childhood and youth of the neighborhood, beset by many downward influences in their homes and in the streets, are climbing to a higher level of health and knowledge and goodness.

The Eggleston Library—in the Society's office building—specially intended as a circulating library among our Missionaries, has now been in existence more than a year, and though it is a much valued collection of books, it is not large, and we are hoping that our friends of the clergy and laity will favor it with some additions during the coming season.

The Free Reading-room in the basement of the same building has been open on week-day evenings throughout the year, and many young men of the neighborhood have made good use of it. A generous gift of more than a thousand books from Mr. Henry Parrish has enabled us to enrich the shelves in this reading-room, and also those of the libraries at God's Providence Mission, the Alms-house, and the Penitentiary.

The fund received for our Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter festivals, amounting to $2,217, has put a new song into the hearts of many of poverty's children, and carried cheer and comfort into many hospital wards and prison cells.

Last season's excessive and prolonged heat deepened our sense of thankfulness for the privilege of administering a Fresh Air Fund. As already stated, the gifts for this important branch of our summer charities amounted to $2,620.35. We were more than usually fortunate, also, in the matter of facilities for the shelter of beneficiaries at places in the country, and of some of these places we beg leave to make special mention.

Mrs. J. Hull Browning, with her accustomed generosity, gave us the use of her Fresh Air Cottage at Tenafly, and, at her own expense, cared for two hundred and twenty-five of our St. Barnabas' House children in parties of twenty-five for two weeks at a time, and we were favored also with similar courtesies for smaller numbers of children at the Martha Home, Sing Sing, at the Seaside Hospital, and at Carmel. Late in the spring a few ladies kindly supplied us with means for a three months' rental of a desirable property at Sound Beach, Conn., comprising a large partly furnished house, a spacious lawn, and an orchard, in five acres of ground near the Sound. Here, on the 21st of June, we opened a Fresh Air Home for women and children, and called it "Hope Orchard." We had intended to close it on the 15th of September, that being the date fixed for the expiration of the lease, but Mr. J. Kennedy Tod, who, with Mrs. Tod, had shewed us no little kindness all through the season, particularly in giving us the use of the bathing beach at Innis Arden, their country seat, was too much interested to be willing to let the work terminate at that time, and so proposed its extension two weeks longer, and then later in the day to Bellevue Hospital, where he confirmed four patients who seemed to belong to what is called the "submerged class," must have been impressed by the thought that even in these places for the destitute, homeless, and forgotten of their fellowmen, God works in mysterious ways, and shows us that the race is not always to the swift, nor the haven of peace always to the life that has known no shipwreck.

We have received many special gifts for this Mission, including a large reading-room and schoolrooms, and money for part of the building of the Chapel and two stories of the other part of the enabled us, accordingly, to go on. Of the 420 persons accommodated at this Home, the majority were there for a week, but the sojourn of many others, in more urgent need, was increased to two weeks or more. In view of expenses connected with our enlarged work of providing a rest in the country for over-worked women and sickly or crippled children, our steamboat outings were smaller in number than usual, but we sent more than fifteen hundred persons on refreshing excursions to Glen Island and elsewhere.

Important as every department of the City Mission may well be said to be, the three principal Chapels at which the Mission comes in touch with families living in neighboring homes of poverty naturally seem to have specially valuable opportunities, though each Chapel has some characteristics and surroundings quite peculiar to itself. No one who studies the situation at the Chapel of the Messiah, in Ninety-fifth Street, near Third Avenue, can fail to see that this comparatively new and growing neighborhood of poor people, of a class more intelligent and thrifty than that of our similarly crowded centres of population, presents a most favorable field for missionary progress. There is here, apparently, a larger proportion of American families, and also those of Church of England antecedents, than can easily be found in the same area in down-town tenement districts of the East or West Side. We are not surprised, therefore, to see that the Minister in charge has gathered around him a band of earnest co-workers, notably in his Sunday School. Some months ago he presented a class of sixty-two persons for confirmation. The organizations under his direction include a Chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, Daughters of the King, Mothers' Meeting, Industrial School, and Young Crusaders. The district visitor, toward whose salary the City Committee of Grace Church has kindly contributed $120, has rendered him much timely aid. We were sorry to lose the Rev. T. Manley Sharpe, Ph.D., who made full proof of his ministry and wrought a good work from the time he entered upon his duties at the Chapel of the Messiah in January, 1896, until he withdrew last spring to become an Assistant Minister at St. Agnes' Chapel.

St. Ambrose's Chapel, at the corner of Thompson Street and Prince Street, is not so attractive an edifice as the Chapel of the Messiah, but it has the advantage of a parish building, which adjoins it and adds much to the convenience of its schools and guilds. As is well known, the district close about this Chapel has become largely populated by Italians. A hundred or more children of Italian parentage are in the Sunday School, and though the Chapel has no ministrations in that language we have good reason to believe that it exerts a wholesome influence among many Italians outside as well as inside of its walls. The congregation is drawn mainly from families of English or American ancestry, who are cordially attached to the Church, and who, for the most part, live a short distance from the Chapel, just beyond the densely crowded Italian quarter. The former Minister in charge, the Rev. Philip Schuyler, left us at the beginning of last summer to accept a call to a parish in Vermont. He had endeared himself to his people as a pastor and friend whose sympathy and faithfulness were worthy of all praise. At the close of his ministry with us he presented a class of twenty-six persons for Confirmation.

The temporary Chapel of San Salvatore has continued to be at No. 40 Bleeker Street, in a large room fitted up for the purpose a year or more ago.

after about two-thirds of the ground on which the former church edifice in Mulberry Street had stood had been assessed by the city for the public use in connection with the extension of Elm Street. The amount due from the city under that assessment—$67,550—has not yet been received, nor has a site for the new edifice yet been chosen, but it is hoped that this Italian Mission, which still retains its large congregation even under the disadvantage of its present unsuitable quarters, will soon see the beginning of its new house of worship.

While we thank God and take courage, we trust the statement made at the beginning of this report as to the past year's income, and also as to legacies yet to be paid, will give no one the impression that the City Mission Society has, or is likely soon to have, funds enough. We hope the help of a large and permanent endowment is not distant, but even then a continual and urgent need will exist for such supplies of money and other benefactions as those on which the Society now so largely depends. Such a need belongs to the present and would belong to the future, even if the City Mission should not attempt to enlarge its scope, because reinforcements would enable it to achieve better results on the ground which it already occupies. It has cost us over fifty thousand dollars to support seven chapels and two mission houses and to maintain missionary connection with thirty public institutions during the past year, and we invite attention to the accompanying tabular statement for more particular statistics. At all these points—particularly at asylums and prisons—we have been and are still obliged to work with an inadequate equipment due to an insufficiency of funds, notwithstanding the fact that we pay small salaries and practise all possible economy consistent with wise methods of administration. We ought to be able to strengthen all these stations by the employment of a larger force of missionaries and lay-workers. But besides this, new centres of educating and Christianizing influence should be established. More chapels and schools and district visitors are needed, as life-savers are needed where ships go down on a stormy coast. Growth is a characteristic of the Church in this community. Whatever may be said of its spiritual side—and we believe that in this most important respect there is steady progress—it is certainly a growth of numbers, wealth, and practical sympathy with all good works. But while old channels are deepening and new ones opening to reach and rescue that part of the city's population that is scourged and blighted by many ills, our Church people, more wakeful to the high call, "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people," ought to do a hundredfold more than they are doing with their means and opportunities.

If it is too much to expect such an increase of missionary zeal to come in at once like a flood, it does not seem too much to look with confidence for a greater outpouring from hearts and hands than at present to enlarge the usefulness of the City Mission, as well as that of other organized, tried, and trusted agencies of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Superintendent.

The Rev. John P. Peters, D.D., presented the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to the clergy and laity of the City and Diocese to give that work their unremitting and generous support.

Mr. Everett P. Wheeler presented the following report :

Report.

To the Convention of the Diocese of New York :

The Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches respectfully report :

That applications from the following-named churches for admission into union with the Church in the Diocese of New York have been considered by your committee, to wit:

The Church of St. Cornelius, in the City of New York.

The Mission Church of the Holy Cross, Kingston, N. Y.

That such applications were received by the Secretary of the Convention more than forty days before this date, and were delivered by him to your Committee more than thirty days before this date.

That we have examined the said applications and find them to be in conformity with the law of the State of New York, and with the canons of this Church.

Wherefore, we report that the prayer of the said applications should be granted, and that the said churches be admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

EVERETT P. WHEELER,
WM. WATTS SHERMAN.

NEW YORK, September 27, 1898.

On motion of the Secretary, the Church of St. Cornelius, New York City, and the Church of the Holy Cross, Kingston, were admitted into union.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following amendment to Canon XVIII.:

Canon XVIII., Section 3 (II.). The members of each archdeaconry shall be the clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish, and two Lay Delegates from each Archdeaconry Mission; elected, etc.

On motion, the proposed amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Professor Hopson presented the following report :

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Trustees of St. Stephen's College Acting Warden until a new Warden is elected, begs to submit to the Convention of the Diocese of New York the following report :

The Rev. Robert B. Fairbairn, D.D., LL.D., who for thirty-five years administered the affairs of the College with wise judgment, with unwearied patience, with persistent purpose, and with unfaltering courage, has resigned the Wardenship and, as Warden Emeritus, has retired, full of years and honors, to enjoy a well-earned rest.

Dr. John C. Robertson, the Hoffman Professor of Greek, has been granted a year's leave of absence on account of ill health. The Trustees have appointed as his substitute for the year Mr. Charles J. Goodwin, Ph.D., a graduate of Bowdoin College and Johns Hopkins University, and highly commended by Professor Gildersleeve for his learning, and ability to carry on the work of that department.

In the reorganization which the Trustees have effected, Dr. Malcom, the Professor of History and English Literature, gives place to Mr. Horace N. Seaver, M.A., LL.B., and Professor Nock to Mr. Irville F. Davidson, A.B., who has been appointed Tutor in Latin and Mathematics.

Mr. Seaver is a graduate of Columbia College and the Harvard Law School, a teacher of twenty years' experience, and intends to study soon for Holy Orders.

Mr. Davidson graduated from Harvard University in 1897, magna cum laude, and by a year's practical experience has proved his ability to impart his knowledge successfully.

The Rev. Dr. Eliphalet N. Potter is in temporary charge of the department of Psychology.

Death has taken from us Col. S. Van Rensselaer Cruger, for twenty-five years a Trustee and the Treasurer of the College, who was a strong tower of defense to it during the struggling years of its early history, and who showed his continued interest in it by his regular attendance upon the meetings of the Board, even when suffering under the influence of a fatal malady. The Trustees have elected William Harison, Esq., Treasurer in his place.

The College is greatly indebted to Spencer Trask, Esq., who served as Acting Treasurer for some time, and employed his rare business talent in establishing the finances of the College on a surer foundation.

Seven of our students graduated at the last Commencement, and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Three others completed the course prescribed by the canons for entrance upon their theological studies.

Fourteen new students have entered College, and some others have applied for admission. Our present number is about sixty. The changes which were made, and the uncertainty which prevailed, have temporarily affected our numbers, but we hope soon to rise on better foundations to a higher degree of prosperity.

GEORGE B. HOPSON.
Acting Warden.

The Rev. John W. Brown, D.D., presented the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the report of the Acting Warden of St. Stephen's College be referred to a committee of five to be appointed by the Chair, with instructions to confer with the Trustees and Alumni of the College, and in conjunction with the former to determine upon such action as may be for the best interests and permanent well-being of the institution.

The Bishop appointed as such committee :

The Rev. Dr. John W. Brown, the Rev. Dr. Huntington, Rev. Dr. Arthur C. Kimber, Mr. John B. Pine, Mr. Chas. H. Russell.

The Rev. Dr. Parks, on behalf of Mr. George Zabriskie, presented the following proposed amendment to Canon XIV., which was referred to the Committee on Canons :

Resolved, That Canon XIV. be amended so as to read as follows :

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Removal of Places of Public Worship.

In places where the Church is already established no parish shall be formed, or church, chapel, mission or Sunday-school established, or congregation gathered, nor shall any congregation or Sunday-school be removed from one place of public worship or of instruction to another without the written authorization of the Bishop, granted upon the recommendation of the Standing Committee.

Application for such authorization shall be made to the Bishop in writing by the rector and vestry of the parish, or, if there be no rector, by the vestry, or, where it is not made by or on behalf of a parish, by at least six communicants of the Church; and shall set forth the grounds upon which the authorization is applied for. The Bishop may, in cases which seem to him urgent, grant a provisional authorization pending the decision of the application, authorizing such temporary services or instruction as he shall think fit. He shall in all cases immediately refer the application to the Standing Committee, who shall by the order of their President, or otherwise, appoint a time and place for the hearing of the application, and shall give at least twenty days' notice thereof in writing to the Bishop, to the petitioners, and to the rectors and the vestries of the three churches or parishes whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the proposed site. The Bishop, if he be present at the hearing, shall preside, and the hearing shall be public. The representatives of the parishes notified, and all other persons interested in the proposed action, shall be entitled to be heard. The Standing Committee shall communicate their determination to the Bishop in the form of a recommendation that the authorization be granted or refused, as the case may be, with a brief statement of their reasons. If their recommendation be adverse, the Bishop shall refuse his authorization; if it be favorable, the Bishop may, in his discretion, either grant or refuse the authorization. All provisional authorizations granted by the Bishop shall terminate upon his final decision.

The Rev. Dr. Harris offered the following proposed amendment to Canon XIV., which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

In places where the Church is already established, no new parish shall be incorporated, or new church or chapel be established, or new congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing church, chapel, or congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee by the parties moving therefor, to the rectors and vestries of the three churches or congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such rectors and vestries to present any objections they may have.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish.

Provided, however, that a Mission, conducted by the Board of Missions, may be established anywhere with the consent of the Bishop and the formal approval of the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry within whose limits such Mission shall be situated; but no such Mission shall be incorporated as a Parish until it has complied with the provisions of the other sections of this Canon.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, the Bishop of the Diocese, in his last Convention Address, called attention to "the present aspect of our Sunday-school work as largely inadequate or inefficient," and stated that, "in view of the fact that the Church is, in the present age, called upon to vindicate her office as preëminently a teaching Church, and to rest her hold on her children upon their intelligent knowledge of her history and doctrine," and that, "at such a time the Sunday-school ought to be a foremost agency for the dissemination of a sound and sufficient knowledge concerning the Church's Faith and Order."

Therefore, Resolved, that a Commission be appointed, whose duty it shall be to consider the expediency of establishing a Sunday-school Institute in this Diocese, which shall serve as a centre of communication through which information as to the best methods of organizing and conducting Church Sunday-schools may be gained—with a view of raising the standards of Sunday-school teaching, and furthering the work of proper grading of schools, and the use of such text books and lessons as may most satisfactorily meet the needs of the Church.

The Bishop appointed as such commission the following :

The Rev. Pascal Harrower.
 The Rev. David H. Greer, D.D.
 The Rev. William R. Huntington, D.D.
 The Rev. Henry Mottet, D.D.
 The Rev. John P. Peters, D.D.
 The Rev. William S. Rainsford, D.D.
 The Rev. E. Walpole Warren, D.D.
 The Rev. William L. Evans.
 The Rev. Charles A. Hamilton.
 The Rev. William H. Pott, Ph.D.
 The Rev. Ernest C. Saunders.
 The Rev. William W. Smith, M.D.
 Mr. Nicholas Murray Butler.
 Mr. Charles H. Stoughton.
 Mr. Harry Pike.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund in the Diocese of New York beg leave to report : That the funds in their care and the expenditures therefrom have been substantially the same as in the last few years.

A detailed report from the Treasurer is appended herewith.

The purpose of this fund is, first, to aid insufficiently paid clergymen who may be officiating anywhere in the Diocese of New York ; and, second, to assist organized parishes in the purchase of glebe-lands and the building of rectories.

When we consider the comparative poverty of some of our underpaid clergy and the advantages of helping them and their parishes through such a fund as this, it is to be regretted that a Diocese as large and rich and generous as the Diocese of New York should have done so little of late years to increase this fund and extend its sphere of usefulness.

During the past year the Trustees have apportioned the sum of $250 each to a number of Diocesan clergymen whose salaries were less than $500 a year. If it is difficult for a clergyman to live as a priest and a gentleman on $500 a year, how difficult must the problem become when he has, as has been frequently the case, a family to support ? What must be the anxieties and humiliations of the position of one who must maintain the dignity of a gentleman on so meagre a stipend.

The Trustees have met four times within the year and appropriated such sums as the income from the funds invested would allow. That the various appropriations were not larger, or more in number, is due to limitations of the funds at the disposal of the Board.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. Stuyvesant Fish Morris, M.D., and Mr. George R. Schieffelin were elected trustees for the term ending October, 1901.

The Rev. Dr. Shipman, from the Committee on Canons, presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, in pursuance of the instructions of the Convention to report such amendments to Canon XIX. as may be necessary by reason of the discontinuance of the plan for facilitating the effecting of life insurance by clergymen of the Diocese, beg leave to report that Canon XIX. be amended as follows :

1. Strike out Subsection 3d of Sec. 3.

2. In Subsection 2d of Sec. 4 strike out "s" from the word "funds" in first line; and in the second line strike out "and for facilitating the effecting of life insurance by clergymen"; and in fifth line, after "1886," insert, "in relation to said fund."

3. In the third paragraph of Sec. 5 substitute "said" for "three" in second line.

In the third line substitute "divided" for "apportioned," and "between them" for "among the said three funds."

Strike out all of the sixth line after the word "Trustees."

Also the whole of the seventh line and the word "and" at the beginning of the eighth line.

Strike out the word "three" at the end of the ninth line.

The Rev. John Marshall Chew presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE LAW FOR THE INCORPORATION OF CHURCHES.

In accordance with a resolution of the last Convention, the Chairman of this Committee engaged in correspondence with the ecclesiastical authorities in the other Dioceses of the State, resulting in a conference of committees representing four of the Dioceses, namely : New York, Long Island, Albany, and Central New York.

The conference was held in New York City, on February 4th of this year, under the presidency of your Chairman of this Committee, fifteen members being present and all the four Dioceses well represented.

The Conference discussed all the recommendations of your Committee, for amendment of the existing law, as they were approved by the last Convention of this body, and adopted them all, unanimously, without material change.

The Secretary of the Conference was directed to notify the ecclesiastical authorities of all the Dioceses in the State that this agreement had been reached.

A sub-committee of lawyers was appointed, to draft the proposed amendment into the form of an Amendatory Act, to be presented, by them, to the State Legislature. This sub-committee consisted of Hon. Delano C. Calvin, Mr. George Zabriskie, and Mr. George Macculloch Miller, members of this Committee from the Diocese of New York, with Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse, of the Diocese of Long Island, and Gen. Selden E. Marvin, of the Diocese of Albany.

This sub-committee fulfilled their task successfully, and the Amendatory Act was adopted by the last Legislature, signed by the Governor, and placed on the Statute Book.

Taking advantage of the occasion, the Conference discussed some further possible changes in the law, besides those recommended by the Committee. Notably, the proposition was advanced to grant the privilege of suffrage to women in parochial elections, but no action was taken.

The Conference, however, discussed and unanimously recommends to the consideration of the Dioceses of the State one very important matter of public policy, affecting the tenure and disposal of Church property.

In this, it took action upon the proposition, recommended by this Committee to the last Convention, but recommitted at its own request, relating to a proposed requirement that a parish wishing to mortgage, lease, or sell any of its real property, must obtain the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, before making application to the court for leave.

Your Committee offered to eliminate the word "lease"; and, in that form, the Conference, without any dissent, proposes this further amendment, to be approved by the Dioceses of this State, and presented to the Legislature for enactment.

The resolution covering this proposition, and adopted by the Conference, is as follows :

Resolved, That the amendment to the Religious Corporations Law in regard to the sale, mortgage, or leasing of real property, proposed to the Convention of the Diocese of New York and recommitted to their committee, having been amended by the omission of any provision in regard to the leasing of real property, is approved by this Conference, and is referred to the Conventions of the several Dioceses, with the request that it be approved by them, in order that it may be presented to the Legislature for enactment.

The proposed amendment is as follows:

Amend Article I., Section 11, of the Religious Corporations Law of 1895, as amended by Chapter 836, Laws of 1896, by adding after the words, "The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property, unless the rector of such church, if it then has a rector, shall be present," the following : "and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See, or of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall suffice."

This being a matter of considerable importance, both to the Church, as the custodian of souls, and to parochial vestries, as holding property in sacred trust for the good of souls, the Committee asks leave to have so much of this Report printed as contains the resolution of the Conference and the proposed amendment, for distribution to the Convention to-morrow morning.

And that the proposed amendment be made the subject of discussion at a designated hour to-morrow.

And that the approval of this Convention be given to the amendment.

And that it be recommitted to this Committee, to secure legislative action, so soon as it shall have been approved by the ecclesiastical authority in a majority of the Dioceses of the State.

For the Committee,

JOHN MARSHALL CHEW,
Chairman.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Chew, the following resolution was adopted :

1. Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be requested to have printed sufficient copies of the resolution of the Conference of Committees on the State Law for the Incorporation of Churches, together with the proposed amendment, for distribution to the Convention to-morrow morning.

2. That the discussion of the Report and the proposed amendment be made the order of the day, to-morrow morning, immediately after the elections, as the first business, under Rule 6 of the Rules of Order.

The Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D.D., presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention desires, as disciples of the Prince of Peace, and as followers of Him who has declared that He will one day "cause wars to cease in all the world," to place on record its deep sense of thankfulness that his Imperial Majesty, the Czar of Russia, has been moved to propose to the nations of the world a conference for promoting international disarmament, and to assure his Imperial Majesty that the sympathy and the prayers of the members of this body, and, they are persuaded, of millions of Christian people all round the world, are with him in a purpose so noble, and in an endeavor so consonant with the faith of that most ancient branch of the Catholic Church of which he is so lofty an ornament.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention be instructed to forward a copy of these Resolutions, duly authenticated, to the Ambassador of the United States at the Court of St. Petersburg with the request that he will communicate them to his Majesty the Emperor of Russia.

The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention desires to express its gratitude to Almighty God for the happy return of peace.

Resolved, That this Convention would put on record its sympathy with its brethren of the Army and Navy of the United States, and its admiration for their gallantry and patriotism.

Mr. Herbert Taylor, deputy from St. Andrew's Church, Walden, presented the following resolution, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on proposed Sunday-school Institute:

Resolved, That the rector of a parish has the power to appoint the officers and teachers of the Sunday-school, and also to remove the same, if he sees fit.

The Secretary presented the following

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolutions, viz. :

Resolved, 1. That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention, who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose parishes have contributed to the fund, as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the canonical, customary, and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

Resolved, 2. That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XV. of the Diocese, from every congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the Conventional year 1898-1899, be one per cent. on the amount of the salary of its clergyman.

W. N. DUNNELL,
D. PARKER MORGAN,
AUGUSTUS WIGGIN,
LEWIS C. POPHAM,
JAMES POTT.

On motion, the resolutions were adopted.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS,
Thursday, September 29, 1898.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of the Convention, the Rev. Amos T. Ashton, Rector of St. James' Church, Hyde Park, and the Rev. George H. Bottome, Vicar of Grace Chapel, New York.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion, the calling of the roll of deputies was omitted, and deputies present to-day, but not present yesterday, were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

The Secretary reported to the Convention the following nominations, in accordance with the provisions of Canon IX. :

Mr. George Macculloch Miller presented the following report :

The Committee to which was referred the portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the management and safe-keeping of the property of corporations and societies for which the Convention is directly or indirectly responsible, respectfully report that, understanding the scope of their duty to be the consideration of—

- (a) The custody and safe-keeping of securities and money representing capital;
- (b) Methods for prompt and judicious investment of capital;
- (c) The safe and economical collection and disbursement of income;
- (d) Guarding against unauthorized or injudicious expenditures;
- (e) Protection from misappropriation of securities or money;

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Convention that the corporations and societies referred to should arrange and contract with a trust company of assured responsibility and standing for the following service :

1st. The custody and safe-keeping of the money and securities representing capital.

2d. The investment of capital under the advice and direction of a committee of the corporation or society to which such capital belongs.

3d. The collection and disbursement of income under regulations to be agreed upon between such trust company and the society or corporation to which such income belongs.

4th. When possible, to act as treasurer or assistant treasurer for the corporation or society contracting with it.

Resolved, That it is recommended that each of the corporations and societies referred to, adopt the custom of requiring two formally authorized signatures to every check or draft given in its name.

Resolved, That it is recommended that securities always be taken and stand in the corporate name of the corporation or society to which such securities belong, and, when practicable, be "registered" in such name.

September 29, 1898.

On motion, the resolutions recommended by the Committee were adopted.

On motion of the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., it was ordered that the Convention meet as a Board of Missions immediately after recess.

The order of the day having been called, the Rev. John Marshall Chew offered the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That the amendment to the Religious Corporations Law in regard to the sale, mortgage or leasing of real property, proposed to the Convention of the Diocese of New York and re-committed to their committee, having been amended by the omission of any provision in regard to the leasing of real property, is approved by this Convention.

Resolved, That the amendment be re-committed to the committee to secure legislative action so soon as it shall have been approved by the ecclesiastical authority in a majority of the Dioceses of the State.

The proposed amendment is as follows:

Amend Article I, Section 11, of the Religious Corporations Law of 1895, as amended by Chapter 336, Laws of 1896, by adding after the words, "The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property, unless the rector of such church, if it then has a rector, shall be present," the following: "and shall not make application to the Court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See, or of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall suffice."

Mr. Delano C. Calvin presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the certificate of incorporation of parishes and of the changes authorized by law, heretofore approved by the Convention, be, and they are hereby referred back to the committee reporting them, for such revision as may appear to be necessary by reason of the recent amendment of the statute respecting the subject; and that when completed, they be printed by the Secretary of the Convention.

Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller presented the following report:

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, but in spite of the additions made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1899. The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

The Trustees report to the Convention the purchase by them of $16,500 par value of the First Mortgage 4% Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad, costing $16,212.50, for investment of the capital of the Fund, and the purchase of $4,000 par value (costing $3,930) of the First Mortgage 4% Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad for the investment of the Residence Fund, and they ask the approval by the Convention of such investment, and offer the following :

Resolved, That the investment by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of a portion of the moneys in their hands in the First Mortgage 4% Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is hereby approved.

The Trustees further report their intent to change the investment of the money heretofore invested in the debentures of New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company ($55,000) and in United States Bonds ($1,000) into the 3½% First Mortgage Gold Bonds of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company, and ask the approval by the Convention of such change of investment, and offer the following :

Resolved, That the action of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund in investing the proceeds of the debentures of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company and of United States 4% Bonds in 3½% First Mortgage Gold Bonds of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company is hereby approved.

On motion of Judge Calvin the ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. W. M. Grosvenor, D.D., was elected to fill the vacancy among the Deputies to the Federate Council.

On motion of Mr. John A. Beall the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. A. T. Mahan was elected Deputy to General Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Shipman presented the following report :

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred at the last Convention a proposed canon providing for the fixing of parish boundaries as a means of preventing the invasion of the rights of one parish by another, beg to report:

1. That, looking at the distribution of parishes in what now constitutes the most considerable part of the Diocese, any scheme for the division of such parishes on territorial lines is, in their judgment, impracticable.

2. That, as regards the protection of parish rights, the Committee are of opinion that this end is substantially secured by Canon XIV., as it now stands. It seems to be desirable, however, that this Canon should, if possible, be made more explicit, and in this view the Committee recommend that it be so changed as to read as follows:

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment or the Removal of Places of Public Worship or Parish Work.

In places where the Church is already established no new parish shall be formed, nor shall there be established any new place of public worship, religious instruction or parish work; nor shall the site of any existing place of public worship, religious instruction, or parish work be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But in case of any application for permission to occupy or change a given site, such consent and approval shall not be given until the applicant or applicants shall have furnished the Bishop and Standing Committee with due proof that the Rectors and Vestries or Trustees of the three parishes whose places of public worship are nearest to such site have received at least one month's notice that such application has been made.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish or mission.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Harris the report was recommitted to the committee for report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Shipman presented the following:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

On the first day of Convention, after the preparation of the report just offered, two other proposed amendments to Canon XIV. were referred to this Committee. Of these the one offered by the Rector of Calvary Church on behalf of a lay deputy from the parish, seems to be rather a substitute for the Canon than an amendment to it.

It will have been observed that the principal additions introduced by this amendment are these: (1) That in any case of application for permission to establish a place of public worship or religious instruction, or to change its site, the Bishop can act only on the recommendation or report of the Standing Committee: (2) That, pending the decision of the application, the Bishop may, in his discretion, authorize the opening of places of public worship or religious instruction for temporary use; (3) That when the Standing Committee shall have appointed "a time and place for the hearing of the application," such hearing shall be in "public," and in it, not only "the representatives of the parishes notified," but all "others interested in the proposed action" shall be entitled to take part.

The Committee are of opinion that this proposed amendment to Canon XIV. would result in no advantage to the Church, and they therefore recommend that it be not adopted.

The third proposed amendment to this canon—offered by the Secretary of this Convention—provides that any mission that is to be conducted by the Board of Missions may be established (not, as in the case of other missions, with the consent of the Bishop and the formal approval of the Standing Committee, but) with the consent of the Bishop and the formal approval of the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry.

With regard to this proposed amendment the Committee would respectfully report that they can see no valid reason why, in establishing a mission, the Board of Missions should not continue to conform to the same canonical requirements which are in force for parishes. They therefore recommend that the amendment be not adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Shipman presented the following:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred at the last Convention a resolution requesting an opinion as to whether the words in Article V. of the General Constitution of the Church, providing that "no city shall form more than one diocese," do or do not affect the clergy and parishes in that part of Greater New York which is now included in the Diocese of Long Island, beg leave to report:

That, inasmuch as the General Constitution of the Church is now in process of revision, and the words in question are to be considered in all their bearings by the approaching General Convention, they have thought it unnecessary to report more than this simple fact, and beg to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

The Rev. Dr. Shipman presented the following :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom has been referred an amendment to Canon XVIII., sec. 3 (II.), adding after the word parish in the third line the words and mission station, beg leave to report :

That the amendment be adopted with the proviso that such Lay Delegates from mission stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys.

On motion, the proposed amendment with such proviso was adopted.

The Convention proceeded to sit as the Board of Missions.

The Rev. R. M. Berkeley presented the following :

Report

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions respectfully report as follows :

1. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess reports that the eight mission stations within its jurisdiction are all supplied with energetic and efficient missionaries, and in one direction the effort has been made in association with the Archdeaconry of Westchester to establish a Church mission which ought soon to become self-supporting. During the year the self-supporting parishes have, in almost every instance, met the amount apportioned to them in the support of the missionary work, and the Treasurer of the Archdeaconry has not drawn on the full amount voted to the Archdeaconry by the Convention. There has been no remarkable instance of growth in any particular mission of the Archdeaconry, but the general tone of the work is satisfactory, and the valuable character of the Archdeaconry system has been shown in adjusting difficulties in two mission stations, and in holding the congregations to their full responsibility.

For the second time in its brief history, the Archdeaconry of Dutchess is called upon to deplore its loss in the death of its Archdeacon. The whole Diocese, and not only that part of it in which he exercised the office of Archdeacon, shares in the loss. The unselfish administration of the affairs of the Archdeaconry, the patient and helpful support by encouragement and advice of all who came to him for such help, the simple and direct dealing with difficulties which arise in country missionary work, the generous recognition of others' work and service, had endeared him to his brethren of the laity and clergy alike.

We cannot but place upon record, in the report of the missionary work of this Diocese, an affectionate remembrance of our dear friend and brother, Thomas Burgess, the late Archdeacon of Dutchess County.

2. The Archdeacon of Orange reports that the same stations have been maintained as last year; that the personnel of the missionary force has changed but little.

The field of labor of the Rev. J. H. McGuinness has been extended so as to include Monroe and Chester, with occasional services at Highland Mills. To assist him in so many stations he has employed the services of a Deacon.

One of the most encouraging features of the year, in respect of new work, is the erection of a tasteful and commodious church building at Chester, Orange County. The people there "had a mind to work," and have wrought well. The Archdeacon, at the request of the Bishop, opened this house for worship on the Festival of the Transfiguration, assisted by several of the clergy. Since then regular Sunday services have been held, and the congregation, which is both vigorous and growing, highly appreciates the change from a hall, ill adapted to Divine Service, to a handsome, well-lighted, and conveniently arranged church.

The missionary and trustees confidently expect to ask for the consecration of the building by St. Paul's Day, 1900.

It is proper to state that the Treasurer of the Archdeaconry of Orange reports that the financial pledges of parishes and missions within our limits, for the support of missionary work, have been in almost every instance paid, and that every missionary engaged has been paid promptly and fully.

3. The several mission stations of the Archdeaconry of Westchester have been well sustained, and the work carried on with marked and increasing interest.

The Archdeacon, in his report to the Archdeaconry in January, was able to say: "We have signs that are cheering and hopeful. One parish that for years has had a stipend, is about to give it up, feeling that it is capable of self-support. Another mission station that has cost this body $600 a year for a long time, supports itself and gave $25 last year into our treasury. Still another, where a debt has been removed, desires to support itself and missionary."

The Rev. Henry Chamberlaine entered upon the work of St. Mary's, Newcastle, Westchester, and is doing much to advance the work.

At Sherwood Park, West Mount Vernon, a strong work is going on, and a beautiful chapel has been erected and practically paid for.

At Harrison, near Rye, under the care of the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, D.D., a chapel is almost completed. Both these missions promise good work for the Church.

From St. John's Church, Lewisboro, comes the cheering news, a cause for great thankfulness, that the last farthing of its debt has been paid, and an endowment well started by a bequest of $5,000.

At Lake Mahopac the missionary soon expects to begin the erection of a rectory. So also is it with that ever-energetic missionary at Spring Valley "and parts adjacent." At Pleasantville a rectory has been completed. At Haverstraw the work has been maintained most courageously under great difficulty, owing to the prolonged strike in the brick industry, and praise is due the Rev. W. A. Masker for his faithful service.

The Treasurer of the Archdeaconry of Westchester is able to record the fact that the deficit so long distressing the Archdeaconry has been wiped out, and all stipends due October 1 will be paid promptly.

4. The report of the Archdeaconry of Richmond is, on the whole, favorable for the year, though there have been some changes and some apparent failures.

The mission at Concord, under the Rev. H. N. Lawrence, has shown marked growth and prosperity. A parish building has been erected and paid for, which has greatly helped the activity of the mission, and great credit is due to the incumbent for his zeal and perseverance. The Sunday-school, Industrial School, and various parish organizations are all actively at work, and show an increase in numbers and energy.

At Garrettson's the work has gone on steadily with little change, but without any loss.

At Erastina the Rev. Mr. Queale has continued his faithful labor, and though there has been no marked growth, there has been no falling off.

St. Stephen's, Tottenville, has gone through some trouble, but now the prospects are very encouraging. The Rev. John C. Fair has had charge for some months, and his energy and zeal have done much to strengthen and unite the parish. It promises not only to be self-supporting, but also soon to be a help to the mission work of the Archdeaconry.

Matters at Eltingville and Newdorp are in a condition far from favorable, on account of internal dissensions and unwise management, but it is to be hoped that the coming year will see both missions restored, and with a fair promise of success.

Steps have been taken to make the Archdeaconry a corporate body, and all has been done that can be at present to accomplish that object. Especial thanks are due to the Treasurer, Mr. Whitlock, whose legal knowledge and financial ability have been a great help to the work of the Archdeaconry ever since he has held the office.

5. The Archdeacon of New York reports that all the missions under the charge of the Archdeaconry of New York have gathered strength, and are now in more vigorous condition than ever. There has been no increase in the number of missions, because there has been no such increase in contributions to the funds of the Archdeaconry as to make enlargement and extension of the work possible. Only eight churches and four chapels, out of eighty-four churches and chapels in New York City, have contributed to the funds of the Archdeaconry. What has been gathered for Church extension has been through voluntary contributions of eight churches and four chapels, and from fifteen individuals, at the personal solicitation of the Archdeacon. A larger interest on the part of churches would greatly extend and permanently establish what has already been begun. There is imperative need of large contributions for the purchase of land and the erection of chapels or parish buildings for each of the three missions in the northern part of the city, beyond the Harlem River, viz.: The Mission of St. George's, at Williamsbridge; the Mission of St. Stephen's, at Woodlawn, and last, not least, the Mission of St. David's (to colored people), at 611 East 158th Street.

During the past year (December 17, 1897) the Archdeaconry of New York became incorporated, so that it can now hold property, and whatever sums may be intrusted to it for permanent investment in parish property will be held by it in trust for its missions, and will not run the risk of being lost or injudiciously applied by passing out of its own control. The Archdeaconry can also now receive legacies and gifts for the great and important work of Church extension in the city of New York.

The following figures will convey, in part, the work done at the three missions already mentioned—St. Stephen's, St. George's, and St. David's: Confirmations, 39; baptisms, 48; communions, 77; services, 471; contributions, $2,351.77; families, 315; communicants, 178; Sunday-school scholars, 332; Sunday-school teachers, 33; industrial school, 30.

Woodlawn is now supplied with a resident Priest, the Rev. E. M. Parrott, Jr. The minister in charge of St. David's was ordained Priest last Trinity Sunday. The Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., is in charge at Williamsbridge. As these missions are now supplied with clergymen in full orders, this involves increased expenditures, but also promises augmentation of strength and growth.

The words of the Archdeacon of New York, "A larger interest on the part of the churches would greatly extend and permanently establish what has been already begun," surely demand some consideration of this body, as well as the accounts given of the earnest and faithful work being carried on by the Rectors and missionary clergy of the several Archdeaconries. The committee presenting this report earnestly ask the reverend clergy to bring to the notice of their people the immense importance, the great responsibility, of Diocesan Missions, and that they do so, as our Bishop has said, "with their hearts in their mouths." The committee would also suggest that the Board of Managers shall hold meetings from time to time in prominent churches of the city and country, so that the ever present duty of ministration to the scattered children of the Church may be brought to and fixed upon the consciences of clergy and laity.

The Board of Managers earnestly ask for the appropriation of $25,000 for the ensuing year. All which is respectfully submitted.

ROBT. MAURICE BERKELEY,
PRESCOTT EVARTS,
AUGUSTUS WIGGIN.

Mr. James Pott presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TREASURER OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

In presenting his Annual Report the Treasurer has the great pleasure of stating that, owing to the munificent contribution by a layman of $1,000, and the receipt of the Edson legacy, he has been enabled not only to pay the appropriations to July 1, and to provide for the payments due October 1, but also, with the Bishop's approval, to make an allowance to the Archdeacons towards covering the necessary expenses of their office.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Orange, the sum of $25,000 was appropriated for the expenses of the Board of Missions during the ensuing year.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Orange, the ballot was dispensed with, and the present members of the Board of Diocesan Missions were reelected, viz.:

The Rev. Octavius Applegate, D.D.	Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes.
The Rev. J. Selden Spencer.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
The Rev. Robert E. Crary, D.D., Sec.	Mr. James Pott, Treas.
The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D.	Mr. George Zabriskie.
The Rev. D. H. Greer, D.D.	Mr. S. Nicholson Kane.

The Archdeacon of New York presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That it be referred to a committee of five to consider and mature a plan for bringing the contributing parishes and the missionary stations of the Diocese into more direct and mutually helpful stimulating relations with each other.

The President announced the following committee, in pursuance of the foregoing resolution :

	The Rev. Dr. Brown.
The Rev. Dr. Tiffany.	Mr. George A. Crocker.
The Rev. Mr. Evarts.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.

On invitation by the President, Mr. Paul Shimmon, of the General Theological Seminary, addressed the Board of Missions for five minutes on the subject of Christian Missions in Persia.

The Board of Missions adjourned, and the Convention resumed its session.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Shipman, the amendments of Canon XIX., recommended by the Committee on Canons at Wednesday's session, in reference to omitting life insurance for clergymen, were adopted.

The Rev. William W. Olssen, D.D., presented the following report :

Report.

OF COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The undersigned beg to report that the General Theological Seminary continues in a flourishing condition, and its influence in moulding the character of the clergy to a higher degree of intellectual and spiritual culture is increasing year by year.

The faculty and students and the Church generally have had to lament the loss of the Rev. Andrew Oliver, D.D., "Glorvina R. Hoffman" Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the New Testament, who departed this life on Sunday, October 17, 1897. For more than twenty years he had filled the Chair of Biblical Learning with eminent ability and to the entire satisfaction of the authorities of the Seminary, and by the kindliness of his disposition had endeared himself to the students under his charge.

Three of the endowed Fellowships have been filled during the year by graduates of the Institution, who have amply justified the wisdom of establishing such Fellowships for securing greater efficiency in theological learning whereby the faith of the Church may be successfully defended.

The Rev. Hugo Radau, during the last year, has been engaged in examining and translating the large collection of Babylonian bricks brought from the banks of the Euphrates two years ago by some persons who accompanied the expedition of the University of Pennsylvania for the exploration of the ruins near Babylon. Many of these bricks have proved of great historical value.

As the result of the preliminary or entrance examination, seventy-one new students were admitted to the Seminary, making in all an attendance of one hundred and fifty-six students during the year.

The students have had the advantage of several lectures of a literary, musical or ecclesiastical character, from distinguished men and divines.

Addresses have also been delivered before the students from time to time by several of the Bishops and other clergy of the Church.

The Committee report three vacancies in the number of trustees of the General Theological Seminary to which this Diocese is entitled, and would nominate to the Convention the following gentlemen to fill those vacancies: The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D., Mr. John A. Beall, and Mr. Charles F. Hoffman, Jr.

The Committee wish to put on record their appreciation of the successful efforts of the Seminary to advance the standard of clerical efficiency by a thorough training in intellectual and spiritual attainments of candidates for the holy ministry.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WM. W. OLSEN,
CHARLES F. CANEDY,
CHAS. F. HOFFMAN, JR.

On motion, the Rev. Dr. Parks, Mr. John A. Beall, and Mr. Chas. F. Hoffman, Jr., were elected to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees in accordance with the recommendation of the Committee.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to arrange for a special service for the Convention, and such other public meetings as may be deemed expedient.

The Bishop appointed as such committee:

The Rev. Pascal Harrower.

The Rev. E. Walpole Warren, D.D.	The Rev. Prescott Evarts.
The Rev. J. Nevett Steele.	The Rev. Walter Thompson, D.D.
Mr. George Zabriskie.	Mr. Theo. K. Gibbs.

Mr. George Zabriskie presented the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That a committee of four clergymen and three laymen be appointed to consider the subject of the establishment and removal of churches and places of public worship, and to report to the next Convention their conclusions and recommendations.

The Chair appointed as such committee :

The Rev. Thos. R. Harris, D.D.

The Rev. C. C. Tiffany, D.D.

Mr. George Zabriskie.

The Rev. John P. Peters, D.D.

Mr. Delano C. Calvin.

The Rev. W. M. Geer.

Mr. William Jay.

The following report was presented :

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

Owing to a change in the time of making the Annual Report, the Board of Managers has made no formal statement since the one presented to the last Diocesan Convention.

The work of the Society has been carried on in its various branches with all the vigor in its power, and at no time since its organization has more practical good been effected than at the present. In consequence of the overcrowded condition of the Society's rooms in Coenties Slip, the Board of Managers has added a large communicating room at 37 Front Street, greatly increasing the accommodations.

Provision for the comfort of United States sailors engaged in the war has awakened much interest. From one of our stations alone 2,700 comfort bags have been distributed, and acknowledgments have come from all parts of the world, and from every war vessel in our navy. The coöperative work among the several benevolent societies in New York which labor for the benefit of seamen (an extended statement in regard to it being made to the Convention of 1897) has been continued, one result being the shipping by our officers of 651 men, all of them being protected from unjust charges, and a large majority of whom paid no shipping fees whatever.

The works above mentioned tend to make our Society widely and most favorably known among those we seek to benefit.

The Society has to mourn the death of one of its lay vice-presidents, the late Mr. E. M. Duncan, who was an officer fifty-three years. The Society has had no more faithful or interested friend and worker, and his memory will long be cherished by his associates.

Since the last report to the Convention, the current expenses have been $18,557.26. The ordinary current receipts have been $12,495.46. The deficiency of $6,061.80 has been partly met by the proceeds of a legacy by the late Mary A. Edson, amounting to $2,766, and the balance by using money remaining in the temporary deposit of the Society. This deposit is now exhausted, and for the future we can depend only on the income from trust funds (about $2,500 a year) and the contributions of our friends.

It is hoped the Society will find a sufficient number of contributors to enable it to continue its good work, at least to the present extent, though the demands upon it make it desirable to largely extend it. This can only be done with greater contributions.

The Rev. Dr. Warren presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be extended to the Rector and Vestry of Grace Parish and to the Vicar of Grace Chapel for their generous and much valued hospitality.

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal of this Convention be published and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Harris presented the following resolution :

Resolved, That 1,000 copies of the Bishop's Address be printed separately and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Warren, it was Resolved, That after the approval of the minutes, and the concluding prayers, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The minutes were read by the Secretary and approved.

Concluding prayers having been said, the Convention adjourned.

HENRY C. POTTER,
Bishop of New York.

THOS. R. HARRIS,
Secretary of Convention.

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

Grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied among you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ !

As I look into your faces this morning, I am painfully reminded of those who were with us a year ago to-day, and whose places, now, are vacant. Never have I had to submit to you a longer catalogue of these, nor one marked, I think, by so many memorable names ; foremost among them all that distinguished layman, a chief ornament of the Church of this Diocese, and for more than forty years conspicuous alike in our Diocesan Councils and in those of the General Church. I will ask you to rise and remain standing while I rehearse to you those of our Fathers and of brethren more immediately associated with us who, during our Diocesan year, have departed hence in the Lord. They are :

Bishop of the Missionary District of Northern California.

The Rev. Andrew Oliver, D.D., Professor of New Testament
Literature and Interpretation in the General Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Alfred B. Beach, D.D., Rector emeritus of St. Peter's Church, New York.

The Rev. George H. Houghton, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, for nearly fifty years, this Church being his first and only charge.

The Rev. John Gough Brick, Rector of St. John's Church, Barrytown.

The Rev. Daniel Washburn.

The Rev. Daniel Grosvenor Wright, D.D., long an educator of youth, in the 85th year of his age.

The Rev. Edward Bell, formerly Assistant Minister of the Church of the Ascension, West Brighton, and for many years the Minister of the Chapel of Our Father at Mariner's Harbor.

The Rev. George Dudley Wildes, D.D., Rector emeritus of Christ Church, Riverdale.

The Rev. Ebenezer Gay, formerly in charge of the House of the Good Shepherd, Tomkins Cove.

The Rev. Edward A. Bradley, D.D., Vicar of St. Agnes' Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York.

The Rev. Thomas Burgess, D.D., Archdeacon of Dutchess, and Rector of St. Luke's Church, Matteawan.

The Rev. Jesse A. Spencer, D.D., for some years Professor of Greek in the College of the City of New York, and Rector of the Anthon Memorial Church, New York.

The Rev. George Frederick Oertel, M.D.

The Rev. S. Russell Jones.

Mr. Floyd Bailey, Warden of Christ Church, Piermont.

Mr. Herman C. Schwab, Vestryman of St. Mary's Church, Manhattanville, New York City, and Trustee of the House of Rest for Consumptives.

Mr. William B. Beekman, Vestryman of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, New York.

Mr. Stephen P. Nash, Warden of Trinity Church, New York. Trustee of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Deputy to the General Convention, member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York, and Trustee of Columbia College.

Mr. Isaac Gibson Jaffrey, Vestryman of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, New York.

Mr. Francis Lahey, Vestryman of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, New York.

Professor Henry Drisler, of Columbia College.

Mr. Charles H. Contoit, Vestryman of Trinity Church, New York. Mr. John M. Toucey, Vestryman of St. Philip's in the High-

Church. The special acts for the past year are as follows :

Our geographical situation in this great city this morning suggests a view of this gathering which, if many observant and clever people were asked to describe it, would be regarded as eminently symbolic. We find ourselves at the moment geographically far from the ganglionic centres of metropolitan life. "An interesting work this," one can imagine an airy critic of our modern life remarking, as he looks over this picturesque group of buildings ; “an interesting and doubtless very worthy work that which this Chapel and its Schools and Hospitals, and the rest, are doing, but rather remote from the centre of things, and of secondary, not primary, consequence in the life of a great city—or a great republic.”

Suppose, now, we should ask such an one what are the things that are of primary importance in the life of a great city or a great republic ? He would answer us, I presume, according to his estimate, in our organized life, of principles or of opportunities. There are great multitudes of people in this land who are not concerned with principles except as social inconveniences. They do not believe in them, nor in their influence or authority ; and if you press them a little they will tell you so.

There is a still greater multitude, as I rejoice to believe, who do believe in principles and who are satisfied that no community, municipal or national, has any other foundation that is not a foundation of sand. But they are not clear where these principles come from, nor upon what foundation they rest. They are the accumulation of tradition, they tell you, the evolution of experience, the sum of the best wisdom of the past—but no more, nor higher.

Men and brethren, you and I are here because we believe something else and infinitely more ; and because we are, it becomes my duty to remind you this morning, in connection with this assemblage, of the danger which even we are in of losing sight of what we believe. There are laymen, and clergymen, too, I presume, who are absent from their places here this morning on some secular errand which they have accounted more important than this Convention, and to neglect which they have regarded as a more serious dereliction of duty than to neglect their duty here. They are mistaken in that judgment ; and it is because it is a mistake which the secular pressure of our circumstances makes more and more immanent in our time that I feel constrained to speak of it now.

If any man were asked to define the difference between the relation of Religion and its representatives to common life, at the beginning of this century and at the end of it, I think he would own that it was in the matter of its authority. Then the religious teacher was listened to for his office, and regarded for his spiritual place and rank. To-day, the situation is such as was described by an old Roman priest in New England, who said to a friend of mine, not long ago, who asked him, “How do you govern your people ?” “Ah, sir ! a few of them by fear, but most of them by flattery." It was a most suggestive and far-reaching reply, for it somewhat coarsely indicates that deferential, complaisant attitude of religion to our modern life—that somewhat invertebrate and effusive effort to adjust preaching and services and social relationships to a standpoint which is neither lofty nor spiritual, which, I think it must be owned, is to-day a type of the activities of religion, whether in the pulpit, the parish, or the home. It is a policy of accommodation which softens the authoritative note in preaching, secularizes the character and the quality of our parochial activities, and lets down the whole level of the Church's endeavor to a plane often sordid and oftener tawdry and vulgar.

What is the remedy for it, and how does such a situation concern you and me who are here this morning? To answer the last question first, let me say, most urgently and most directly does such a question concern us. For if this Convention is not to be concerned with the work of the Church in witnessing to the truth, in bringing its life-giving grace to the lives of others, and illustrating that grace in our own, then certainly we have no business here, and the sooner we go home the better.

And so, the answer to that other question which I asked first of all, as to the deterioration of a high spiritual ideal and of a lofty spiritual tone among us, is of no less distinct and urgent importance. If the temper of our time crowds the Church to one side, treats religion, in the economy of our national, civic, or social life, as of secondary and inferior importance, what is the remedy for it, and how may you and I employ it?

(a) In answer to that question I would say, first of all, that the primary agency instituted by our Lord for the founding, up-building, and edifying of His Church was the institution of preaching, and I do not hesitate to say that, as an agency for moving men in the direction of lofty aspirations and exalted ideals, it remains to-day the mightiest institution known to man. But I have no sooner said this than I know that many of those to whom I say it will say to themselves, if not to me, "However true that may have been in other days, it is not true to-day," and will proceed to show how the altered conditions of modern life, the diffusion of knowledge, the cheapness of literature, the influence of the modern newspaper, and the like, have contributed to impair that exclusive and authoritative hold which the pulpit once had upon the affections and the consciences of men.

I have no slightest disposition to challenge such a statement, nor to impugn the motives of those who make it, and yet I am profoundly persuaded that the pulpit of our time has lost nothing of its hold, upon the hearts and consciences of men, that it might not recover if it were seriously purposed to do so. My quarrel with the modern preacher is that he has so soon and so easily reached a conclusion which disparages the pulpit as a throne, and the possibilities of its persuasive influence in his hands who can use it with a reverence for its divine institution and an enduring faith in its supernatural power. In a word, the vice of our time, men and brethren, in the matter of preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ is, that they who are called to that office and ministry esteem it so lightly and discharge it so carelessly, so improperly, so often indifferently. I do not want here to speak one harsh and ungracious word, if I can help it; but I must own to the amazement with which, on those rare occasions when it has been my privilege to hear anybody else preach, it has been my fortune, now and then, to hear a deacon or a youthful priest get up and inflict upon a Christian congregation of devout and thoughtful people the crude maunderings—they deserve to be called by no better name—of some utterly sophomoric mind, extemporaneously delivered and in often vulgar and often ungrammatical English. I know we have come upon the era of extemporaneous preaching, and I am told often enough that “the people like it better.” I suppose they do, for we all like what neither taxes the attention nor touches the conscience, especially if it be soon over; and the extemporaneous preacher, having often very little to say, has at least occasionally in his preaching the solitary virtue of brevity. But I maintain that this is treating a most tremendous responsibility, and a most glorious and august opportunity, with scanty respect and still scantier conscience. Let me entreat my brethren, and especially my young brethren of the clergy, to write at least one sermon in the week, and to get ready for it, and for every sermon, on their knees, and with their Greek Testaments in their hands and the best learning of the time within their reach. Do you want men to listen to you? Then prepare for them something which, so far as you can make it, shall be worth listening to.

(b) And so of that other department of the Church’s office and work in the world which is represented by her Worship. We have heard much about this latter, during the last few months, from beyond the sea; and I am sure you must be glad, with me, that a more patient, if not tolerant spirit prevails among us than among some of those of whom, of late, we have been reading. I do not wonder, indeed, that there has sometimes been something of impatience towards the eccentricities of a meretricious individualism screening itself behind what it calls "Catholic" usage—in which usage, however, no two parishes in the land agree—nor that such things have sometimes been more than even the most philosophic forbearance could quite endure. But we must recognize that, in this Church, we have at present only the most indefinite law of Ritual, and that those whose office it is to provide something else have not as yet seen fit to enact it.

I confess for myself that I am not very eager that they should make haste to do so. We may well recognize the fact that, instead of gibing at one another, on the one hand because of excesses and on the other because of defects, the Catholic and comprehensive note which we claim as part of our primitive heritage demands that we should admit and recognize, in matters of worship, divergencies of usage as wide and as various as the race-traditions, training, and temperaments of the people to whom we minister. Some of us may incline to a more or less austere Ritual. I must acknowledge for my own part that, when I see or hear of some Services marked by a more elaborate and ornate usage, I sympathize with that Roman priest who, having witnessed a "high function" in one of the churches of our own Communion in this Diocese, remarked, I am told, to a companion, "Very fine, no doubt, but for myself, I prefer our own simple Service." But, nevertheless, we may not forget that elaborate and highly colored Ritual has been found, as they maintain, to edify, in the case of such men as the saintly Liddon, and his peers; and if so, you and I to whom it is distasteful may not say that it cannot serve and does not serve a high spiritual end. What we have a right to demand, I think, is that it shall not consist, in any smallest degree, in the mutilation of the Church's appointed Holy Offices; and that the men who are guilty of this shall be regarded, and treated, as the wanton law-breakers that they are.

The highest question of all, however, in such a connection, and it is of supreme consequence in this discussion, is the question how far any particular style, class, or character of Service in connection with Public Worship tends to deepen the spiritual life, to build up character, to touch the springs of conduct—in one word, to create a saintly manhood and womanhood. I confess that, in the discussions of this subject in our Mother Church, I have been surprised to see how little, if at all, this aspect of a complex and difficult subject has been dealt with. But surely one may look over the Church and say, "Here is a congregation with a high note of saintliness and of service." Careless though the stranger may be when he enters it, he is hushed into reverence by the atmosphere of seriousness and devotion in the midst of which he finds himself. Those who are on their knees are there with eyes closed, and senses sealed to outer curiosity; The Word, whether from lectern or pulpit, is heard with a devout and scrupulous attention which shows that it is received as a Divine Message. And when such a congregation passes out into the world beyond, it touches that world with its high purpose and its self-forgetting service. It savors of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, His law in the family, and in the shop; and His love in the sorrow and in the shame that are so large a part of human life.

Such a test as this, I maintain, is one that is applicable, intelligible, and valid. And, in a smaller way, there is no slightest difficulty in applying it. The parishes, in this land, in this Diocese, might without much difficulty be divided into two classes, those that are noteworthy for splendor and elaborateness of the material details of worship, and those that are distinguished by the cheerfulness and the liberality with which they bear the burdens of the larger work of the Church, in foreign lands, in Western wildernesses, in the lanes and alleys, the prisons and hospitals of great cities. There are those to whom Religion, whether as worship or conduct, is a serious thing, and who do real work for Christ. There are those to whom it is a dramatic or spectacular thing, and to whom it is no more.

(c) And this brings me, finally, to speak of that other element in the Church's life and work, without which all the rest is vain and nugatory. When we go back to primitive times—take the salutations at the close of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans as an illustration of what I mean—we cannot but be impressed with the most significant and often pathetic evidence that no sooner had an Apostle told men about Christ, won them to own Him, to be baptized in His name, and to be confederated together in the bonds of His blessed Sacrament of love and sacrifice, than he set them to work for their Lord, laymen and laywomen of every rank and class, and not only deacons and elders, but the Bishops who were over them both. Read that exquisite page of greetings in the letter which I have just named to you! What did it mean but that Andronicus and Junia, Amplias and Urbane, Tryphena and Tryphosa, Philologus and Julia, "Nereus and his sister"—how human that touch is! he has forgotten her name, but not her gracious service—what, I ask, does such a catalogue as that mean but that each one of these men and women of the laity had a place to fill and a work to do in the Church of God, and were filling it, to the glory of His name and the succor and salvation of their fellowmen?

And how is it with you, my brother, who are here this morning as a lay deputy for your parish, and with those men and women in the parish whom you represent? How far does your attendance here or at an occasional vestry meeting exhaust the tale of your service for the Church whose son you are? "I like to go to the Diocesan Convention," I have been told a layman once said, "the Bishop deals sometimes very plainly with the Clergy; and they need it, they need it!"

Well, and how is it with you, my brother of the laity, and of your part in our common work? How much help from you does your Pastor get in the Sunday School, in visiting the sick, in bringing again the outcast, in searching the waste places for the souls of those for whom Christ died in lifting the standards of our modern life? It is an unwelcome fact to recognize—but it is my duty to beseech you to look it honestly in the face—that, compared with those other religious bodies about us, of our superiority to which some of us are a little too fond of boasting, the gifts, the sacrifices, the services of the laity of this Church are sadly and habitually inferior. In our general Missionary work we have lately had some painful reminders of this, the lesson of which may God give us grace and humility to take to heart!

For never, my brethren of the laity as well as my brethren of the Clergy, never was the situation more critical or the need of our common work for Christ more urgent. I began by saying that our assemblage here this morning on this eastern fringe, as one might almost call it, of this great city, would doubtless seem an apt symbol of the relation in which this assembly stands to the mighty currents of life beyond it. We are a subsidiary, a secondary part, a necessary decorum, a useful adjunct, men tell us, to mightier forces and more momentous interests.

There could not be a more complete or more perilous inversion of the whole moral, social, political situation! The nation has had much, during the past few months, to blind and to intoxicate it. It has won an easy victory over an effete and decrepit adversary, in which no splendors of individual heroism, nor triumphs of naval skill—and in these we may indulge a just pride—ought to blind our eyes to the fact that we have had a very easy task against a very feeble foe. And now, with unexpected fruits of victory in our hands, what, men are asking, are we going to do with them?

Nay rather, the solemn question is, What are they going to do with us? Upon what wild course of so-called imperialism are they going to launch a people, many of whom are dizzy already with the dream of colonial gains, and who expect to repeat in distant islands some such history as our conquered enemy wrote long ago in blood and plunder in her colonies here and in South America? We have our Congress to direct this race for empire and our gaunt and physically wrecked sons and brothers by tens of thousands at home to show us how they will do it.

At such a time, as never before, the Church of God is called upon, in the pulpit and by every agency at her command, to speak the words of truth and soberness, and to reason of righteousness, temperance, and a judgment to come—a judgment for nations as well as individuals—till impetuosity is sobered and chastened; and until a people in peril of being wrecked upon an untried sea can be made to pause and think. The things that this community and this nation alike supremely need are not more territory, more avenues of trade, more places for place-hunters, more pensions for idlers, more subject races to prey upon, but a dawning consciousness of what, in individual and in national life, are a people's indispensable moral foundations—those great spiritual forces on which alone men and nations are built.

For these forces, men and brethren, and for nothing less, we need alike to pray and wait. Let us see to it that we think of ourselves with the humility that may well become us. Let us see to it, no less, that we recognize in the august powers for which, in season and out of season, the Church of God is put in trust that one supreme force that can alone purify and enlighten and regenerate the soul of man or the fabric of human society. With such a trust, in such a time, how vigilant, how fearless, how faithful to God, to His truth, to our fellowmen, we ought to be. May He make us so by the power of the Holy Ghost!

I cannot conclude without recalling to you what I said a year ago about the Church's duty to the young, and the imperative need of a thorough consideration and a considerable reconstruction of our methods of dealing with them. An interesting meeting held in this city, in May last, issued in steps for the organization of a Sunday-school Institute, in which I am promised, let me gratefully record, the coöperation of many most valued brethren of the clergy and laity.

Of another matter I am constrained to speak here, because of the growing importance and graver aspects of the interests which are involved in it. A few years ago, in a Charge on the duties of Wardens and Vestrymen, I pointed out the serious responsibilities of these officers of the Church as the trustees and guardians of its corporate property. The time has come when it is plain that I ought to speak to you of the preëminent necessity of such concerted action by this Convention as shall recognize the especial sacredness of all trusts created for the due care and guardianship of all money or other property given to God for the work of His Church in this Diocese, in whatever relation and for whatever ends. I am constrained to say that our methods in this connection are open to grave criticism, and that they have issued, more than once, in most disastrous and, I fear it must sometimes be owned, dishonoring results. There is, too often, great looseness, unpardonable carelessness, irresponsible action, and conspicuous incompetency. It is an evil in which there is undoubtedly very often, in individual cases, no evil intent, but the effects of which have been to impair confidence, to chill generous impulses, and greatly to discredit our whole fellowship. It cannot too soon be ended; and it is the plain duty of this Convention to take such action in the matter of all Diocesan trust funds as shall secure their most scrupulous guardianship, and then their wisest employment for the various ends for which they were contributed. I ask you, brethren, to give to this matter your immediate and earnest attention.

I began this address by invoking upon you the Apostolic blessing of Peace. I cannot conclude it without lifting your thoughts for a moment to a wider horizon than our own—that larger circumference that binds us in one family with all the nations of the world. From one of them has lately come a message so strange, so unexpected, and, above all, so profoundly significant, that it does not seem easy to exaggerate either its importance or its timeliness. I am speaking, of course, of the recent ukase of the Emperor of Russia, proposing a conference of the great powers to consider the subject of international disarmament. I am not at all unmindful, let me say, of the reception which this memorable proposition has met at the hands of foreign diplomatists and native pro-imperialists. I am as little unaware of the gentle and often kindly scepticism with which it has been greeted by many clever and acute minds in both hemispheres, whose attitude to all great national questions has come to be one of good-natured cynicism, and whose philosophy of life is summed up in Carlyle's axiom, that brute force is the master of the world.

For myself, I do not believe that axiom; and I think that a Christian ought to be ashamed to believe it. Nor do I believe that, because some people have dismissed the present young sovereign of Russia as a dreamer and a visionary, you and I are called upon to dismiss his remarkable utterance as unworthy of serious consideration. The world has forever been divided between the dreamers and the "practical" people—the men who have seen visions, and the herd that has laughed at the vision and the visionary.

But, sooner or later, once and again, and again, all round the world, some such dreamer has struck a great note, the clear and penetrating resonance of which has waked and roused the nations.

Most opportune is it, I think, that, in the ear of a nation already dizzy with the dream of what it may achieve by conquests through the force of arms, there should sound that strong, temperate and most cogently reasoned message which rings through the ukase of the Emperor of Russia. It is an unanswerable indictment of the enormous folly and essential madness of the international race for increased armaments—ships and forts and men piled up in ever-increasing proportions, until, at last, the utmost limit of a nation's resources in men and money has been reached, the last man has been dragged from his family, the last shekel has been borrowed from reluctant creditors, and the empire or the republic makes its wild plunge, at length, into irredeemable bankruptcy. And this is called statesmanship, and "the wisdom of diplomacy," as against the visionary dreams of an imaginative sentimentalism! For myself, it is better described in those very recent words of a singularly clear, hard-headed, and acute English statesman whom nobody will accuse of being visionary or a dreamer. I mean Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who pronounced the present rivalry of the great powers of the world in the matter of ships and men as simply "insensate folly."

Has such a folly bewitched and blinded us? Has the lust of empire and the passion of conquest made the people so mad that it not see the mischiefs and the misery that such a policy is destined to entail? Is it true, above all, that the followers of Him who came to teach men how to beat their swords into plow-shares and their spears into pruning hooks are eager, instead of striving to abolish the bloody and brutal duello of nations, to reënthrone it? Are “peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety” to prevail among us by cutting one another’s throats? For one, I disown so barbarous a conception of our calling in the world as at once a libel upon our civilization and a dishonor to our common Lord and Master!

And so I hope that this Convention will not separate without some expression of sympathy and of admiration for an act so really noble and words so greatly wise as those of the ruler to whom I have already referred. May God give him courage to persevere in his high and holy purpose, and may the Ruler of rulers turn the heart of kings, presidents, and peoples toward an aspiration so generous and a purpose so truly Christ-like!

And in such a spirit, men and brethren, let us turn to our tasks in this Convention and to those that lie beyond them. May God bind us together in the spirit that seeks to understand one another, to be just to one another, and to love one another. The old bitternesses fade, thank God; the old rancors are dying. Out of a larger knowledge has come a larger charity. See to it, I beseech you, that out of it there come, no less, a higher note of purpose and a readier willingness for service and for sacrifice—to the glory of God, and to the upbuilding of His Kingdom on the earth.

PAROCHIAL AND MISSIONARY REPORTS.

FROM MAY 1, 1897, TO MAY 1, 1898.

Amenia, St. Thomas' Church; the Rev. JAMES STARR CLARK, D.D., Rector.
Benjamin Benson and John Knibloe, Wardens. John D. Barnum, Jr.,
Clerk of the Vestry. Charles Buckley, Treasurer.

Families and Parts of Families, 25. Baptisms (inf. 4, ad. 1), 5. Marriages, 2. Burials, 8. Communicants: Number last Reported, 44; Received from Other Parishes, 5; Loss by Removal, 2; Loss by Death, 2—total Loss, 4; Present Number, including 20 at Dover Plains, 65. Public Services: Sundays, 92; Holy Days, 6; Other Days, 8—total, 106. Holy Communion: Public, 24; Private, 5. Sunday-school: Officers and Teachers, 4; Scholars, 27. Church: Seating Capacity, 200.

Seats free and unassigned. Services are supported by endowment, by annual subscriptions, and by voluntary offerings.

EXPENDITURES.—Parochial: Current Expenses, $118.21. Diocesan: Diocesan Missions, $500. General: General Missions, $8.05. Total for All Objects, $626.26.

RECEIPTS.—Endowment, $395; Offerings at Church Services, $61.67; Sunday-school Offerings, $8.05; Subscriptions and Donations, $108; All Other Sources, $48.45—total, $616.17.

The Rev. E. V. Evans was Rector of this Parish till December, 1897, and in charge of the Mission at Dover Plains.

The present Rector began his services the second Sunday in February, 1898, and continued the services at Dover Plains till the third Sunday in June, when other arrangements were made by the Archdeaconry for that Mission.

The Parish of St. Thomas has suffered greatly during the past twenty years by deaths and removals. The population of the village and surrounding country is largely composed of elderly people, and therefore there is little opportunity for Church growth.

The Mission at Dover Plains is very promising. The great need of the Mission is a suitable place of worship, which, with a little encouragement, they would be disposed to build.

Annandale, Holy Innocents' Church (Chapel of St. Stephen's College); the Rev. R. B. FAIRBAIRN, D.D.; the Rev. G. B. HOPSON, D.D.; the Rev. W. W. OLSEN, D.D.; the Rev. C. H. MALCOM, D.D.; the Rev. W. G. W. ANTHONY, and the Rev. A. J. NOCK, Ministers.

These statistics include those for two chapels and one mission, namely: St. Paul's Chapel, Tilly Foster, St. Peter's Chapel, Dean's Corners, and St. James' Mission, Dykeman's. Work at the last-named point is suspended for the present. St. Peter's Chapel, Dean's Corners, was opened for divine worship on Aug. 15, 1897. It is now a fine property, complete with sheds, etc., and a total debt of only $450. St. Paul's Chapel, Tilly Foster, was consecrated on Ascension Day of this year. Above report does not include value of work and furniture given to the chapels. The closing of the mines at Tilly Foster caused the removal of many of our families, including a number of communicants. But their places are being taken quite largely by farming people.

The number of communicants reported includes only actual communicants.

Callicoon Depot, St. James' Church; the Rev. FRANCIS MANSFIELD, M.D.

Diocesan: Missionary Committee, or Archdeaconry, $3; Episcopal Fund, $1.25; Widows and Orphans of Clergy, $2—total Diocesan, $6.25. General: General Missions, $3.87. Total for All Objects, $168.92.

RECEIPTS.—Offerings at Church Services, $33.70; Sunday-school Offerings, $17.78; Subscriptions and Donations, $120.75—total, $172.23.

This parish covers one-third of Sullivan County; and several communicants live at a distance of five to ten miles from St. James' Church; three communicants, residing in Wayne Co., Penn., have this for their nearest parish church, but their names are excluded from our number because they live outside of our Diocesan jurisdiction. Eight persons were confirmed and eight added to our communion list shortly after the first of May; and these are not counted in our record for the past year. The present incumbent has officiated here since Nov. 7, 1897. Only a few services were held in St. James' Church during the preceding six months. Since more than half of the people in the neighborhood of St. James' Church are either natives of Germany or at least of German parentage, we are accustomed sometimes to hold services in the German language.

During the past year the church edifice has been enlarged, its seating capacity being increased by nearly two hundred. Handsome pews given by parishes, guilds and individuals have been placed. The sum of $2,500 has been given by one individual for a memorial parish house. The parish, being located in the center of the city, and in the midst of its chief manufacturing industries, does a unique work among the poor, who make up four-fifths of its congregation. The Sisters of the Holy Nativity continue to work in the parish, and have established a permanent house. A daily Eucharist is maintained. The number of communions made increases perceptibly, annually.

During the past year a number of improvements have been made in and about the church building, including a 500-pound Meneely bell, and a tower erected over the porch to contain it. These were given by the many friends of the late Oscar Green, for a number of years treasurer of the parish, as a memorial to him.

A substantial addition to the Rectory Fund was received during the year, and it was confidently expected that the completion of the Rectory could be reported at this time. But difficulties have been encountered which have prevented even the beginning of the work. It is hoped, however, that it will soon be commenced, and completed before the close of the year.

In May, 1897, there were 9 communicants resident in the mission; to-day there are 30. At the Loomis Sanitarium, of which your Missionary is Chaplain, there have been at times as many as 20 communicants. At present there are 16 at this institution, including attendants and patients. There is a celebration every second Sunday of the month and upon all the great festivals, and evening prayer and sermon every Sunday in the year. No mention is made of these statistics in the foregoing report. During the year our friends have done much to beautify and enrich the Church in the way of gifts, and of our mortgaged indebtedness of $2,500, $1,000 of the same has been cancelled by the holder, Mr. Chas. Beaumont.

This report covers only a portion of the year. There was no rector between May 1st and November 1st, 1897. Only a very few services were held by any visiting clergyman. The annual baptisms and confirmations properly belong to next year's report, when the increase in the number of communicants will be recorded. Divine service is held once a week in the W. C. T. U. Hall, which can seat about forty. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered on the second Sunday of every month. The congregations of Callicoon Depot and Long Eddy unite for worship in St. James' Church on occasions of confirmation. A lot suitable for building a church has been offered by a parishioner; $210 have been subscribed for this purpose by two people belonging to the Mission, to which $25 have been added by Bishop Potter.

At Easter, 1898, the Rev. E. V. Evans of St. Paul's, Tivoli, was elected Rector of Trinity, and accepted; so that now the two parishes in the village of Tivoli, after being severed for 40 years, are united under one Rector. The Rev. W. Geo. W. Anthony, who has acted as minister-in-charge of Trinity, Madalin, for four years, ends his ministrations on June 30th. There is really room for only one parish in Tivoli, and the present arrangement is a most excellent one for the present. It is hoped that later St. Paul's and Trinity may be united into one parish.

During the past year a number of improvements have been made in and about the church building, including a 500-pound Meneely bell, and a tower erected over the porch to contain it. These were given by the many friends of the late Oscar Green, for a number of years treasurer of the parish, as a memorial to him.

A substantial addition to the Rectory Fund was received during the year, and it was confidently expected that the completion of the Rectory could be reported at this time. But

During the year, the cabinet organ and the pipe organ in the church were repaired and tuned, the bell tower was cleaned and a new bell put into it, and through the kindness of five friends the church received a new furnace. Repairs were made in and around the Rectory. I should be glad to have persons take an interest in this mission station.

The Church of St. Cornelius, formerly the Chapel of Zion and St. Timothy, became an incorporated parish April 15, 1897.

The edifice, a handsome and commodious building, with fine auditorium and convenient Sunday-school and guild rooms, was purchased for the sum of $35,000.

Repairs and improvements have brought this amount up to $39,000, of which amount $24,000 have been paid.

We hereby express our heartfelt thanks to those who have helped us in the purchase of our handsome church property.

We also gratefully acknowledge receipt of many valuable and beautiful gifts; namely, Altar, Reredos, Communion and Chancel Rails, Marble Baptismal Font, Prayer Desks, Credence Table, Bible, Prayer Books Book-rest, Hymn Books, Vases, etc., etc.

The loss in communicants is due to a revision of the books. Last year a revision was made which did not go far enough. This year we removed from the lists the names of all who had not communed within the year. Doubtless more than 1,190 persons consider themselves communicants at St. Michael's, but either we have not their names, or, although confirmed, they do not receive the Communion. The majority of newcomers who give in their names, with the request that they be registered as communicants, do not bring transfers from the parishes from which they come. In many cases this is their own fault. In more, it appears to be due to carelessness on the part of the parish from which they come. In a few, it seems to be due to actual unwillingness on the part of certain Rectors to transfer parishioners and remove their names from their books.

St. John's Guild—a society of ladies—has just completed a beautiful building for a Rectory, near the centre of the village, and commanding a fine view of the surrounding country. Though possessed of the modern conveniences, and very attractive in appearance, its cost has been only $3,600. The architect was Mr. Henry H. Holly, Jr., of New York City. The Rector and his family moved into their new home during Easter week last.

Services have been held throughout the year, twice a month, on Sunday afternoons, in the Assembly Room of the School House, Sherman Park, the name of Trinity Chapel having been assumed by the congregation worshipping there.

The corner-stone of the new church building was laid on July 7th, 1897, by the Archdeacon of Dutchess, in the unavoidable absence of the Bishop, and the new church will probably be consecrated about the end of June. The cost will be about $50,000, besides the memorial gifts, so far probably about $12,000 more. A full account of them will be given next year. In all respects the outlook for the parish is most encouraging. "Deo soli gloria."

This Mission is extra-parochial, and is served by the Rector of All Saints', Rosendale.

For some years past the services have been held in the Village School Room. A strong effort is now being made to build a Church or Mission Chapel. A site containing 22,500 sq. ft., with two frontages of 75 ft. each, and of sufficient area for Church and Parsonage, etc., valued at $300, has been presented by Mr. J. W. Dimick, Jr., the resident landowner.

The title is held by the Rosendale Vestry, and the property is permanently secured for church purposes by a special trust deed prepared in consultation with the Bishop and Archdeacon.

Plans for the Church have been prepared and have been approved locally and by the Archdeacon. The building will be commenced as soon as the subscription list warrants such a course. The amount in hand and promised is nearly $500. The residents are working hard to secure their Church.

In March, 1898, the Vestry secured the land on the north and west of the Church, to complete their purchase scheme launched four years ago. The new plot contains about 16,500 sq. ft. It cost $875. The payment is spread over some years by annual installments.

The church lot, as it now stands, forms a compact and valuable property, with an area of about 22,000 sq. ft. There are important frontages to the main street and to a side street. The entire main frontage has a flagged sidewalk. The Church is unprotected on all sides and facilities are afforded for the erection of Rectory and Parish House, and for the enlargement of the Church. There is no debt on the Church property beyond the outstanding balance of the purchase money for the new land. Building is delayed until this is fully paid for.

During Lent the Church was put in thorough repair; the walls decorated and reredos restored and enriched by carving. New carpets and cushions have been presented by the Guild—which has also contributed liberally to outside work. The property of the Parish is now in good order; but to insure the future of the Parish, a considerable enlargement of the endowment is greatly needed.

This Parish celebrates its fiftieth anniversary this year, and a series of appropriate services have already been arranged to commemorate the event. Among other gifts received during the year was a pair of brass alms basins, from a daughter of our late Junior Warden, in memory of her parents.

The services started by the Rector in the historic village of Tappan, last December, have had an average attendance of about sixty, and on several occasions over a hundred have been present. The Sunday-school numbers about sixty teachers and scholars, and owing to the interest and activity of those associated with this work a fund is already in hand for the purchase of a property for church purposes.

The Church has been considerably enlarged during the past year—at a cost of nearly $5,000—the sum needed having been raised without difficulty. A building known as the North Gate Guild House, supported by St. Mary's Guild, has been erected at a cost of nearly $2,000, in a very poor settlement near Tuxedo. A Sunday-school and a Bible Class meet there on Sundays, and a Reading Room affords to the men of the locality a most pleasant meeting-place during the week.

The Parish has never been in so flourishing a condition. The greatest difficulty to be met with in the work is the fluctuating population in the Park.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochial or missionary charge :

THE REV. SAMUEL MITCHELL AKERLY.

" Being without a cure, I would respectfully report that I have answered all calls that have been made upon me, so far as my health would permit, and have preached eleven times, assisted at fourteen services, and made one address."

THE REV. J. W. BONHAM, M.D.

" Respectfully reports : That since the last Diocesan Convention he has officiated in Holy Trinity Chapel, Church of the Holy Apostles, St. James' Church, Church of Zion and St. Timothy, and rendered temporary service in St. Augustine's branch of Trinity Parish."

THE REV. CHARLES A. BRIGGS, D.D.

" Reports : That, besides delivering the University sermons at Cornell and Amherst, he has preached at a number of services, prepared for the press a new book, 'General Introduction to the Study of Holy Scripture,' and is now busy with the duties of his professorship at Union Seminary."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

" Respectfully reports : During the last twelve months I have officiated, on various occasions, in this and adjoining Dioceses."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.

" Reports : That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as a professor in the General Theological Seminary."

THE REV. JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

" Reports : During the past Conventional year I have continued to serve as Assistant General Manager of the Church Mission to Deaf-mutes, administering for the benefit of the deaf the various priestly rites of the Church, and ministering in various other ways to their peculiar needs."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

" Respectfully reports : That during the Conventional year he has rendered assistance to the Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, and also to the Rector of St. Luke's Church, to the Rector of the Church of the Intercession, and to the Rector of the Church of St. Edward the Martyr, in New York City."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has officiated very frequently, especially in the spring and summer months. In the long vacation he is rarely out of the chancel on Sundays, frequently giving welcome assistance to overworked priests. For nine months of the year his educational duties are very exacting."

REV. ALEXANDER FORBES

"Reports : That during the year ending May, 1898, under God's kind providence he has continued to do duty as an assistant minister with Rev. C. W. Bolton, also visiting and assisting Rev. Thomas Stephens on several occasions in Rockland County. He has also been able to give an afternoon or night service in the churches or hospital in Yonkers."

THE REV. THOMAS GALLAUDET, D.D.

"Reports : That he has been constantly occupied in the discharge of his duties as Rector Emeritus of the new St. Matthew's Church, pledged to care for deaf-mutes, and also to build and support St. Ann's Church for Deaf-mutes by themselves. Besides this, he has been working steadily as the General Manager of the Church Mission to Deaf-mutes in New York, with its Home for the Aged and Infirm. On the 6th of August, the Feast of the Transfiguration of Christ, by the appointment of the Bishop of the Diocese, he laid the corner-stone of St. Ann's Church for Deaf-mutes, 148th St., west of Amsterdam Ave. As Pastor of the Sisterhood of the Good Shepherd, he was called upon to especially minister to the Presiding Sister Adella during her long and painful illness, officiating at her funeral in the Sisters' Chapel, on the 4th of August. He desires to bear witness to her high Christian character, and her devotion to the duties of her self-denying position."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"I beg leave respectfully to report : That during the past year, in addition to my duties in the General Theological Seminary, I have occasionally assisted in the services of the Church in different places. During the past summer I officiated and preached in Stony Creek, Conn."

THE REV. J. GOTTFRIED HAMMARSKÖLD.

"During the past year I have, in different dioceses, attended to the duties connected with my office as General Missionary to Swedes. During the same period I have conducted 198 services, delivered 142 sermons, administered Holy Communion 48 times, baptized 30 children, officiated at 5 marriages and 6 funerals."

THE REV. C. H. S. HARTMAN

"Reports : That during the past year he has assisted the Rev. John T. Patey, Rector of St. Luke's Church, New York."

THE VERY REV. EUGENE AUGUSTUS HOFFMAN, D.D. (OXON.), LL.D., D.C.L.,

Dean of the General Theological Seminary,

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other dioceses. He has baptized one person, and officiated at one marriage and two burials, all of which are recorded in the registers of the parishes to which the parties belonged."

THE REV. EDWARD CLARK HOUGHTON

"Reports : That since February, 1896, he has been regularly engaged as Curate at Dorchester Abbey, on the Thames."

X 7

THE REV. THOMAS A. HYLAND

Reports from Astoria, Oregon : " My infirmity from rheumatism still continues, so that I am able to perform very little duty. During the past year I have preached 7 times, baptized 2 infants, and officiated at 1 funeral. I have frequently taken part in the morning and evening services of the church."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

" I have to report that during the past Conventional year I have celebrated the Holy Communion twenty-nine times, have preached ten times, and made several addresses : most of the above at Priory Farm, and all of it in the Diocese of New York."

THE REV. ROBERT LOWRY.

" During the past year through the winter, including the full season of Lent, I assisted Rev. Mr. Harris, Rector of St. Ann's Church, New York. During the summer I have officiated almost every Sunday at Lake Mohonk or at Lake Minnewaaka. I have read service 55 times, preached 13 sermons, attended 3 funerals, and baptized 1 child."

THE REV. C. JULIUS LJUNGGREN.

" I beg to report : That since my ordination to the Diaconate on the 10th of July this year, up to the 24th inst., I have been acting in the capacity of substitute to the Rev. G. Hammarsköld, the General Missionary to the Swedes, and that during that time I have performed the functions and services required of me."

THE REV. GEORGE NATTRESS

Reports from Oxford, England : " That his time has been occupied chiefly in reading and attendance at University lectures."

THE REV. C. W. DE LYON NICHOLS

" Reports : That he has devoted himself especially to the New York Home for Convalescents and the Sunday Kindergarten in the Seventh Ward of that city."

THE REV. J. NEWTON PERKINS,

Secretary of the American Church Building Fund Commission,

" Respectfully reports : That he has officiated on Sundays as opportunity has offered, assisting in the Holy Communion and preaching. In this connection he has baptized 7 infants, married 2 couples, and buried 5 persons. He attended the Missionary Council at Milwaukee, under appointment of the Bishop, as an alternate delegate ; and has presented the cause of the Church Building Fund in various churches and diocesan conventions."

THE REV. FREDERICK A. PETERS

" Reports : That since his ordination he has assisted the Rev. Victor C. Smith at the Church of the Holy Faith, and preached in other churches as he has been invited."

THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE.

" I respectfully report : That during the past year I have been employed at the Church Missions House, assisting the Associate Secretary, and have preached on several occasions in behalf of missions."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports : That the Congregation of St. John's Parish, Sandwich, Mass., has so increased that services are no longer held at his residence, as aforetime. He has, however, celebrated the Holy Communion, regularly, and discharged all the duties appertaining to the priesthood. A deacon, Rev. Mr. Bullock, has been called to the cure, who is to officiate during the entire year. There is but little doubt that the erection of a church edifice will be undertaken forthwith. One adult was baptized. Six persons were confirmed by the Bishop of Massachusetts."

THE REV. GEORGE SEABURY

"Respectfully reports : That during the past Conventional year he has officiated, by assisting his brethren and preaching a few times, as opportunity offered and the feeble condition of his health permitted."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports : That since the date of his last report, May 1, 1897, he has attended as usual to the duties of his professorship in the General Theological Seminary, and has exercised his ministry as occasion required, having officiated in celebrating Holy Eucharist, 25 times ; assisting at celebrations, 18 times ; reading Morning or Evening Prayer, 52 times ; preaching, 16 times ; baptizing (inf.), 1 time ; solemnizing marriage, 4 times ; funerals, 5 times ; assisting at services, 69 times."

THE REV. JOHN W. SHACKELFORD, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Redeemer, New York.

"I have the honor to report : That during the past year the increasing infirmities of old age have prevented my performing any public duty."

THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of St. James' Church, New York.

"During the year I have been constantly busy with services, sermons, and pastoral work, both in St. James' Church and elsewhere. Church committee work has occupied some of my time. In the summer of 1897, during Bishop Doane's attendance at the Lambeth Conference, I had partial charge of the services at St. Mary's-by-the-Sea, North East Harbor, Maine."

THE REV. IRVING SPENCER.

"I have been engaged in active parish work for the past year at St. Andrew's Church, Stamford, Conn., as curate. I hope to go abroad for a year's study in October."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"During the year ending August 31, 1898, I have celebrated the Holy Communion, 73 times ; assisted at the same, 8 times ; said the Litany, 17 times ; Matins, 23 times ; Evensong, 53 times ; short offices, 25 times ; administered Holy Baptism, twice ; solemnized Holy Matrimony, 5 times ; officiated at the burial of the dead, 5 times ; gave religious instruction, 11 times ; preached, 75 times ; made 44 pastoral visits. In addition to the above, I assisted two gentlemen in their preparation for Holy Orders."

THE REV. JAMES TUTTLE-SMITH, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, New York.

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has officiated at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paris, France ; at several churches in New York, and throughout the summer at St. Stephen's Church, Hidgefield, Conn."

THE REV. MAUNSELL VAN RENSSELAER, D.D.,

"Begs leave to report, according to the Canon, that he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Chaplain to the Sisters and Children of the House of the Annunciation, B. V. M., during the past year."

THE REV. FRANCIS WASHBURN

"Reports : That during the past year he has assisted frequently the rectors of many parishes in the dioceses of New York, Newark, and New Jersey. His official acts are recorded in the registers of the parishes served."

THE REV. BENJAMIN WEBB

"Respectfully reports : That in the year just past he has administered Holy Communion on one hundred and four occasions, solemnized matrimony once, and preached twice."

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being ; or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause occurring after the designation of the place of the meeting of the Annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church ; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee ; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

Adopted October 2, 1834 ; and amended October 4, 1839 ; October 1, 1841 ; September 30, 1842 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 27, 1844 ; September 26 and 30, 1845 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1851 ; October 1, 1852 ; September 29, 1859 ; September 28, 1860 ; October 2, 1863 ; September 27, 1866 ; November 15, 1867 ; September 29, 1870 ; September 28, 1872 ; September 25, 1873 ; September 28, 1877 ; September 26, 1884 ; October 1, 1885 ; September 30 and October 1, 1886 ; September 29, 1887 ; September 27, 1888 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 25, 1890 ; and October 1, 1891 ; September 27 and 28, 1893 ; September 27, 1894 ; September 26, 1895 ; October 1, 1896 ; September 30, 1897 ; September 29, 1898.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 16. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 17. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just ; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention ; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention.

* Canon XX., Sec. 5, Title I.

And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned ; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties ; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Clergyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same ; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries ; [3] to have full management of its funds ; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Bishop, and confirmed by the Archdeaconry at a regular meeting, and shall continue in office until his successor be appointed. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions ; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry ; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry ; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese ; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items :

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

infirm to continue his ministry ; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

" 3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

" 4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary; and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel ; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention ; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President:

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections: one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese.

(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.

(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(5) Report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.

(6) Report of St. Stephen's College.

(7) Report of Society for promoting Religion and Learning.

(8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and election of Trustees.

(9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.

2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.

4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.

5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.

7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.

8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

10. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.

11. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

12. Report of the Committee on Canons.

13. Reports of Special Committees.

14. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.

2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling the names of members not present before.

4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.

5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President tr officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

NEW YORK,
Wednesday, Sept. 27, 1899. }

THIS being the day appointed by the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York for the meeting of the Annual Convention, a number of the clergy and laity assembled for divine service, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Church of the Incarnation in the City of New York, the place appointed by the Bishop for the purpose.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese delivered his Annual Address. [Appendix A.]

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church, New York; the Rev. W. M. Grosvenor, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Incarnation; the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., Archdeacon of Orange; the Rev. Frederick B. Van Kleeck, D.D., Archdeacon of Westchester; the Rev. George D. Johnson, D.D., Archdeacon of Richmond; the Rev. C. C. Tiffany, D.D., Archdeacon of New York, and the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the clergy entitled to seats, when 175 answered to their names and took their seats.

The Secretary then called the names of the Lay Delegates, whose certificates had been received, when delegates from 109 parishes appeared and took their seats.

A constitutional quorum being present, the Chairman declared the Convention organized for business.

On motion, the reading of the Rules of Order was dispensed with, and the President announced the election of Secretary and Treasurer as next in order.

The Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., was nominated as Secretary by the Rev. Henry Mottet, D.D.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Dr. Harris was unanimously elected.

Mr. James Pott was nominated as Treasurer by Judge Calvin.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. James Pott was unanimously elected.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hoffman, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Dix, the salutations of the Convention were extended to the Right Reverend, the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania and the Right Reverend, the Bishop of Western Texas, and the Chairman welcomed them to seats at his side.

The Rev. Dr. Hoffman offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously by a rising vote :

Resolved, That this Convention avails itself of the occasion of the Rev. Dr. Heman Dyer's entering on his ninetieth year, to extend to him their warm congratulations and to assure him of their hope that he may still be spared to assist us by his counsel and his prayers.

The Chair announced the following Standing Committees :

Mansfield, Rector of Christ Church, Suffern, and the Rev. Robert Morris Kemp, of Trinity Parish, New York, as Assistant Secretaries of the Convention.

The following report was presented by the Secretary :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 25, 1899.

The following is a list of the various Trusts :

Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Bishop and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House, and School House at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,473.92, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a mission church.

A large addition to the Endowment Fund of this church was received during the year from the estate of Miss Caroline Talman, amounting to $55,000. Miss Talman died during the past year, and this is the final benefaction from her to this church, in which she took the greatest interest. In addition to this legacy of $55,000, Mrs. Caroline T. Wheaton, a niece of Miss Talman, has donated the sum of $10,000 as a further addition to the Endowment Fund of the church, this being done by Mrs. Wheaton at the request of Miss Talman.

Land, Burial Plot, and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House, and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land and Church Buildings at Cruger's, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land, Church Buildings, and Rectory at Verplanck's, Westchester County, occupied by St. Barnabas' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Building at Yonkers, occupied by Christ Church.

Land and Church Building at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector, or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Chapel, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the chapel and grounds.

Endowment Fund for the support of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $4,500.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $15,714.09.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000, to be invested, and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance, and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street. In addition to this, an Endowment Fund of $89,010 has been received, the same being the proceeds of the sale of No. 81 Chambers Street, which had been owned jointly by Trinity Church and St. James' Church, the income going to the latter. The fund derived from the sale of the property is to be held by this corporation, and the income paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled, under the terms of the agreement, to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Building thereon. As no Church corporation has been formed to hold this property, a lease was made to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank German, James A. Burnham, and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services; the property being occupied and held in connection with Christ Church at Rye.

Fund of $5,000 held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

The term of office of two of the Trustees, J. Pierpont Morgan and George R. Schieffelin, will expire October 1, 1899, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The death of Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, one of the Trustees, and since the creation of this corporation one of its most active and faithful members, has made another vacancy, and a Trustee should be elected to hold office until October 1, 1900, in his place.

At the last Diocesan Convention resolutions were adopted in regard to the management by a Trust Company of funds held by corporations connected with the Convention. At a meeting held in October last, this corporation, therefore, appointed a committee to make arrangements for such management; and on May 19th all of the funds of this corporation were transferred to the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company, which has now the custody and control thereof, as directed by the Convention.

The Treasurer's Report submitted herewith shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of Five hundred and seventy thousand, four hundred and four dollars and eighty-three cents.

Income received and paid out, Twenty thousand, nine hundred and thirty dollars and ten cents.

Dated, New York, September 25, 1899.

On motion of the Rev. P. A. H. Brown, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and Mr.
George R. Schieffelin, to succeed themselves as trustees for the term of four years. The Secretary reported that he had cast the ballot accordingly.

On motion of the Rev. P. A. H. Brown, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Edmund L. Baylies, to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees caused by the death of Mr.
Cornelius Vanderbilt. The Secretary reported that he had cast the ballot accordingly.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR LIFE INSURANCE.

The Special Committee, to which was referred, by the Convention of 1898, resolution No. 7, of the report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, respectfully reports :

The text of the resolution referred to the Committee is as follows :

"7. Resolved, That the said Trustees be instructed to divide any balance of legacies or donations which may remain to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund, after the payments of the amounts due on October 1, 1898, equally between the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen and the Fund for Widows and Children of Clergymen, and to pay over any balance of annual collections which may remain to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund to the Fund for Widows and Orphans of Clergymen."

The Committee held a meeting on the 20th day of September, 1899, and at that meeting it appeared from statements made by the Secretary of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, that the Treasurer of that corporation had, in fact, disbursed in payments to beneficiaries of the Life Insurance Fund a sum greatly in excess of the amounts received from annual collections. It therefore appears, that the balance now in the hands of the Treasurer of that corporation to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund has been derived solely from donations and legacies. Inasmuch as, since the inception of the Life Insurance Fund in 1886, all donations and legacies not specially designated, have been required by the canon to be divided equally between the three Funds in the hands of this corporation, it follows that the balance now to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund, should, upon the abandonment of that fund by the Convention, be equally divided between the two remaining Funds.

The Committee therefore recommends to the Convention the adoption of the resolution in question in the following amended form :

Resolved, That the said Trustees be instructed to divide the balance remaining in their hands to the credit of the Life Insurance Fund equally between the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen and the Fund for Widows and Children of Clergymen.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE COPPELL, Chairman,	} Special Committee.

NUMBER OF BENEFICIARIES.

Aged and Infirm Clergymen.....	26	(Decrease, 1).
Widows and Orphans.....	43	(Increase, 6).

The Trustees further respectfully report to the Convention that in pursuance of the resolutions adopted by the last Convention as to the management and safe-keeping of the property of the corporations and societies for which the Convention is responsible, they have, during the current year, made arrangements with the Union Trust Company of New York to act as Assistant Treasurer of this corporation, and in such capacity to assume charge of the securities and also to collect the income and make the disbursements to beneficiaries. This arrangement is terminable by either party on the first of October of any year, and the compensation asked by the Trust Company is such that the disbursements for expenses will not exceed that which has heretofore been allowed to the Treasurer for similar purposes.

The Trustees further report that in pursuance of the instructions given them by the last Convention they have secured from the Legislature an amendment to the charter of this corporation made necessary by the abandonment of the Life Insurance Fund. The charter, as amended, places in the hands of this corporation the two funds known as the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen and the Fund for Widows and Orphans of Clergymen.

The Trustees further respectfully call the attention of the Convention to that portion of the parish reports as printed in the Journal of the Convention which states the amounts contributed to this corporation. Many of the parishes are in the habit of reporting as donations to the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen or the Fund for Widows and Orphans, amounts which, in fact, do not reach the Treasurer of this corporation at all, but are donations either to the General Fund established by the General Convention or are private donations through their Rectors either to individual clergymen or to other charities. The Trustees assume that the blanks furnished by the Secretary of the Convention to the rectors of the parishes, in which there is a space to be filled out for contributions to the Aged and Infirm Clergy and to Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, are intended to be filled up by amounts donated pursuant to the requirements of the canon as to these funds.

Inasmuch as these parish reports constitute almost the only check which the corporation has upon the receipts by the Treasurer, it is very desirable that these blanks should be filled only when the collection has been taken pursuant to the canon, and the amount remitted to the Treasurer of this corporation. Further, it seems important that the parish reports should indicate whether or not any parish has complied with the canon requiring a collection for this Fund. It should not be permissible to fill up these blanks with any contribution or donation to any other fund or to private charity having the same general object in view. The Trustees hope that the Convention will instruct the Secretary to call the attention of the rectors of the parishes to this matter in preparing their future annual reports.

The Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, presented the following report :

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 15, 1899.

Since our last annual report, three of the clergy of the City Mission staff have resigned after long, faithful, and efficient service. We refer to the Rev. Brockholst Morgan, General Agent ; the Rev. Charles A. Wenman (since deceased), and the Rev. Arthur H. Proffitt, Chaplain of Bellevue Hospital, called to the rectorship of Christ Church, Sparkill.

We are grateful to the clergy and laity for another year's generous support, and to Churches and Chapels which have accorded to the Society's representatives the privilege of making appeals in their pulpits in behalf of its work.

The following is a summary of the financial part of that support, viz. :

Church collections.....	$13,514 53
Contributions.....	18,530 14
Interest, rents, and dividends.....	9,198 10
Fresh Air Fund.....	3,587 56
Festival Fund.....	2,122 58
Mission News Subscriptions, etc.....	1,138 45
Legacies.....	147,120 00
Total	$195,211 31

Of the numerous and varied details of the Society's service it is not our purpose now to speak. They are soon to be printed for general distribution. But a partial résumé may be seen in the accompanying tabular statement which, among other records, shows that during the past twelve months our Missionaries have officiated at 3,801 religious services ; celebrated the Holy Communion 484 times in public and 167 times in private ; baptized 24 adults and 282 children ; distributed 28,577 books, and made 73,952 visits. These statistics come to us from what may be called the three departments of the Society's activity, viz. : 1. Chapels and Mission Houses in populous neighborhoods. 2. Hospitals and Asylums. 3. Prisons in the city and on the Islands.

In the first named of these natural groupings of missionary stations we have the Chapel of the Messiah, St. Barnabas' Chapel and Mission House, St. Ambrose's Chapel and parish building, God's Providence Chapel and Mission House, the Italian Church of San Salvatore, free reading rooms, the Egleston Library for Missionaries, and our Fresh Air Fund. At the last confirmation service at the Chapel of the Messiah the Minister in charge presented a class of seventy-eight candidates, of whom forty were heads of families. At St. Ambrose's Chapel, the neighborhood of which is now largely Italian, the Society has arranged to introduce some of the features of the University Settlement plan, and it is hoped that they will be productive of larger results than have heretofore been attainable there, though we have cause to be thankful for the excellent work which has already been done by the Minister in charge and his co-laborers. The Italian Mission continues to thrive at its temporary Chapel in Bleecker Street, and meantime the Committee charged with the somewhat difficult task of selecting a site for the new church is making diligent efforts to find a suitable piece of property, and it seems probable that our Italian friends will not have much longer to wait for the fulfilment of their wish for a permanent house of worship. Extensive improvements have been made during the past summer in the interior of St. Barnabas' House—our temporary shelter for homeless women and children, numbering ninety or more from day to day—and never has the house been so comfortable and so well adapted to its uses as it is now. Such of the former site of the Italian Church of San Salvatore, across the street, as was left to us after the city had taken what was required in connection with the opening of Elm Street, has lately been fenced, and it is now used and much prized by the children of St. Barnabas' House as a playground. God's Providence Mission has also been improved by the addition of a cement floor on the roof, where children from the Day Nursery, Kindergarten, and Industrial School have an enclosed, attractive playground in winter as well as in summer. We are gratefully indebted to the ladies composing the Board of Advisers of St. Barnabas' House and God's Providence Mission for their constant interest and valued help.

Our Fresh Air Fund has been a timely boon to large numbers of children and older people, to whom the summer in city tenements is peculiarly oppressive, and to whom the breath of the hills or the sea is as refreshing as it is rare. In addition to the cottage at Tenafly, where Mrs. J. Hull Browning has kindly sheltered for us one hundred and fifty children in parties of twenty-five for two weeks at a time, we have had the use of a rented house near Haines Falls for one hundred and twenty-five beneficiaries for a three weeks' sojourn.

Other parties have had outings at Tompkins Cove, Nyack, Carmel, Sea Side Hospital, and other places in the country for periods of time varying from ten days to two or three weeks, and steamboat and barge transportation has been provided for two thousand excursionists.

Our Missionaries have continued their loving service among multitudes of unfortunates dependent on the public care at Bellevue, City, Metropolitan, Harlem, and Gouverneur Hospitals, Nursery and Child's Hospital, New York Infant Asylum, Asylum on Randall's Island for children of feeble minds, Home for Convalescents, Home and Hospital for Colored Men and Women, Hopper Home, Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane, and also at the Men's and Women's wards and hospitals of the Almshouse. At the first and last named of these institutions daily services are maintained in the Chapels adjoining them, viz., the Chapel of Christ the Consoler and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd; and at the others there are Sunday services, with one or more week-day services in the larger Hospitals, with daily visits. At the Almshouse a class of candidates has been prepared by the present Chaplain for confirmation, and arrangements have accordingly been made for the Bishop's Visitation on the third of next month.

We are glad to report that the Department of Public Charities is making improvements at the City Hospital on Blackwell's Island which, when completed, will give us on the second floor for our Chapel uses a larger room, better lighted and more convenient to convalescents than the one on the fourth floor now reserved for religious services. Many ladies and gentlemen from Grace-Emmanuel Church, East 116th Street, have rendered valuable assistance in teaching in our Sunday-school for children of feeble minds on Randall's Island, and a lay-reader from the same parish has generously volunteered his services at the Harlem Hospital, where he has been a frequent and always welcome visitor.

The number of persons whom the law has under lock and key is always large. It is gratifying to know that the Gospel is preached to them when they are thus for a time shut within guarded gates. We have Sunday services and Sunday-schools at the Reformatory on Randall's Island called the House of Refuge, where eight hundred or more boys and girls are under discipline, and from their number a class of forty-five candidates is to be presented for confirmation on Wednesday, October 4th. Weekly religious services are also held at the Harlem, Yorkville, Jefferson Market, and Essex Market Prisons, Workhouse, Penitentiary, and House of Detention for Witnesses. At Ludlow Street Jail we have two, and at the Tombs Prison four, weekly services with sermons. At each of these places frequent visits are made by the Chaplain, who, in his effort to befriend prisoners, especially young men and young women about to be brought to trial for their first offence, has occasion to make many visits to the distressed households to which they belong.

We cannot close this brief review of our Missions to prisons through which a procession of a hundred thousand prisoners passes during the course of a single year, without recalling an incident of the fire which destroyed a small part of the Penitentiary on Blackwell's Island, one day last winter. It is well known that not a few of the prisoners voluntarily risked their lives in a most heroic manner in order to rescue other prisoners who were sick and helpless in the burning hospital. Some of the rescuers had barely time to lift their weak fellow convicts to their shoulders and carry them out of reach of the flames. In that thrilling hour a fine spirit, like gold brought to light from base-looking ore, flashed out of men who had seemed only so many outcasts in prison garb. And this bound of their better nature into action is a fair symbol of many soul-awakenings which respond, within and without prison walls, to the City Mission's ministry of love and light and hope.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Superintendent.

The Rev. George R. Van De Water, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously :

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to the clergy and laity of the city and Diocese to give to that work their unremitting and generous support.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report :

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION :

At the last Convention of this Diocese a Commission on Sunday-schools was appointed "with a view of raising the standard of Sunday-school teaching, and furthering the work of the proper grading of schools, and the use of such text books and lessons as may most satisfactorily meet the needs of the Church." In presenting its first report, the Commission desires to call attention to the fact that the causes which led to its appointment are found in the present unsatisfactory condition of this branch of the educational work of the Christian Church. No subject has been more constantly discussed, no educational work has been felt to be more heavily handicapped. It labors under evident disadvantages arising from the time at its disposal, the character and equipment of its teachers, the inadequate training of the clergy themselves, and the widespread confusion as to what the school shall undertake to teach.

The Sunday-school Commission has not, therefore, any final solution of this grave problem to present. It has felt that the most and best it can do is to call attention to those principles which underlie all true education, and arouse an interest in the Sunday-school as an educational institution. Theoretically, the Church regards the instruction of her children as of first importance, yet it is a surprising fact that our theological students receive no specific training for this department of their work. The public school teacher is trained in the principles and art of teaching. The young priest and pastor is sent out with no direct preparation for this supreme duty. The inevitable result of this is apparent in the character of our Sunday-school instruction, and, further, in the confused and even contradictory notions of what should be taught.

In dealing with this problem the Commission, during the past year, arranged a series of Lenten conferences in the crypt of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which proved not only helpful and suggestive at the time, but also developed the fact that many of our Sunday-school teachers are earnestly desirous of better preparation for and knowledge of their work. Two conferences were also had at meetings of the Archdeaconries of Orange and Dutchess, which awakened very encouraging interest. It is gratifying to be able to state that a Sunday-school Commission has been appointed in the neighboring diocese of Long Island. A meeting of the two Commissions has already been held, and the hope is that the work of the two may follow along common lines.

Your Commission now asks your interest in the following course on Christian knowledge which has been arranged for the coming year. The course has been arranged with a view to the varying conditions of the Diocese as a whole. It will first mention the course as proposed for the city. A syllabus of subjects was prepared covering the principles of religious education, together with a list of proposed speakers whose assistance we were most anxious to enlist. One object was to secure a carefully arranged and authoritative discussion of this subject from those conspicuously representing modern educational methods and ideals. It is the purpose of the Commission to have a stenographer in attendance to carefully report not only the address, but also such questions and answers as may follow. The whole series, after proper revision, will be published in book form, and thus provide for Sunday-school workers everywhere a most valuable and suggestive contribution on this subject.

CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE COURSE FOR PARISHES OUTSIDE THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

FIRST SERIES.

Principles of Religious Education.

For this course the Commission commends the use of Patterson Du Bois' "The Point of Contact in Teaching," John Wattles & Co., Philadelphia. There will be prepared to go with this book a set of syllabi covering the five chapters, with names of books of reference for the use of Rectors and Teachers. These Parish Classes should be organized during the autumn or before Christmas. The advantage to Sunday-school workers of such a course cannot be too strongly emphasized. Few, if any, of our clergy have ever had the advantages of pedagogical training, much less our teachers. For them, therefore, this mutual study with its suggestive reading of such books as Bishop Huntington's "Unconscious Tuition"; Dr. Hervey's "Picture Work"; Dr. Vincent's "The Modern Sunday School"; Froebel's "Education of Man," and Dr. G. Stanley Hall's "The Content of Children's Minds"—would open up a new conception of the teacher's work.

SECOND SERIES.

I. The Four Gospels.

II. The Life of St. Paul.

For text-books see above. Classes to be organized in each Parish.

Certificates and Examinations.

The Commission proposes to issue Certificates of Attendance at these lectures and classes. Examinations will not be compulsory, but papers will be prepared for the voluntary use, and, we trust, a very general use, of those attending.

The Commission is quite aware of the fact that to confine the Course in Christian Knowledge to but one place and hour in the city must seem inadequate. A fuller course, with a larger number of stations and lecturers on the University extension idea, has been fully discussed. Such a plan would, however, involve much greater expense, a larger staff of lecturers, and more widespread support than could now be secured.

The Commission believes that at an early day this work of the Sunday-school should be closely connected with the Cathedral System of the Diocese, so as to make the Cathedral not only the centre of missionary and spiritual life, but bring it also into vital relations with the religious education of the children of the Church. There will thus be developed better conceptions of religious education, and better manuals of instruction will be provided to meet the higher standard. From many of our clergy and Sunday-school teachers has come the question, "What Text-books and Lessons can you advise for our Schools?" The only answer at present is that the Church has nothing to recommend that meets the standard of modern educational methods and ideals. This work of making text-books and courses of lessons for our Sunday-schools is not one, it must be remembered, that can be done by an untrained clergy. The Church must call to her aid those who are already leaders in the work of education. She may inspire their interest in so great a task, but she must make use of that special training which they alone possess before she can fully meet the great and serious problem of how best to teach her children.

The only way in which the Church can secure for this great educational work the services of the most thoughtful and gifted of her laity in any of our parishes is to make them feel that the methods used are such as command their respect. The instruction of our children must be practical, progressive, intelligent, and calculated to secure results.

There should be provided a thorough system of registration, with certificates of admission, letters dimissory from school to school, with papers certifying to work done, and graduation.

The final results of such work will be seen in a deepened interest of parents in the Church, a firmer hold of the Church upon her children and young people, and a closer bond of faith and life uniting the Church at large. The work of the Rector will undoubtedly be increased under such a system. But he will secure the advantage of system and of greatly improved quality in his Sunday-school workers. Indeed, he will secure a very much greater range of personal influence, and a far closer contact with his young people than is now possible. The graduate of our theological schools will necessarily come to his work with better qualification and training as a teacher, and thus the efficiency of the Church in her function as a teacher would be largely increased.

Your Commission asks of the Rectors and Sunday-school workers of the Diocese their cordial coöperation towards this great end.

PASCAL HARROWER,
Chairman.

The Rev. Henry Mottet, D.D., offered the following resolution which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Convention hereby approves the Report of the Sunday school Commission, and recommends to the Clergy and Sunday-school teachers of this Diocese the adoption of the course of study proposed, and further authorizes the appropriation from the Diocesan Fund of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary to meet the expenses of the work of the Commission—the said sum to be expended subject to the approval of the Bishop.

The Rev. Dr. Mottet offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That it is the recommendation of this Convention that Sunday and Monday, the 15th and 16th of October, should be observed as days of intercession for Sunday-schools, and for the consideration of the work of the religious education of the young.

The Rev. Dr. Hopson, the Acting Warden of St. Stephen's College, presented the following report :

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

During the past year death has taken from us the Rev. Robert B. Fairbairn, D.D., LL.D., Warden Emeritus, and also three of our trustees, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Esq., the Hon. Roswell P. Flower, LL.D., and John Bard, Esq. Mr. Bard was one of the founders of the College, who was largely instrumental in establishing it at Annandale, who contributed liberally to its support, and gave to it nearly forty years of devoted service.

The Trustees, at a meeting held in this city last Monday, elected to the Wardenship the Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, a graduate of the University of Michigan and of the General Theological Seminary, and a Doctor of Philosophy of Columbia University.

Dr. Cole has accepted the election, and will enter at once upon the duties of his office. He comes to us from the Diocese of Michigan City, where he occupied the responsible position of Archdeacon of the Diocese. He comes commended by the best judges for ability and merit of a high order, and for a power of influencing young men which should prove of great benefit to those whose minds and characters are to be moulded by his training.

Dr. Robertson, who was absent last year on account of ill-health, has returned and resumed his duties as Hoffman Professor of Greek.

Our course of study has been enlarged, and the requirements for admission increased.

Nine of our students graduated at the last commencement, and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Three others completed the course prescribed by the canons for entrance upon their theological studies. Eighteen new students have entered—four more than we received last year, and several have applied for admission next year.

We have had a quiet and successful year, in which (if I may be pardoned for quoting the language of a distinguished visitor, a member of the Board of Regents) "a great deal of honest and excellent work was done by both faculty and students at very small cost."

The College debts have all been paid. We own our plant, which is valued at $233,500, and have besides a net cash endowment of more than $100,000.

The Trustees have unanimously resolved that the College shall maintain its corporate existence permanently. We need now only larger endowments and the cordial coöperation of those who believe in a thoroughly educated ministry to enable us to accomplish with greater efficiency the special work which the Church has given us to do.

GEO. B. HOPSON,
Acting Warden.

Mr. George Macculloch Miller presented the following report :

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, but in spite of the additions made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1900.

The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

The Trustees report that to comply with the terms of the resolution adopted by the Convention of 1898, they have entered into an arrangement with the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company to act as the custodian of the estate, property, and income of the corporation.

This agreement is as follows :

This Agreement, made the twelfth day of June, in the year One thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, between THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, herein designated as the party of the first part, and THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, herein designated as the party of the second part, Witnesseth :

The said party of the first part agrees to take charge and to become the custodian of such moneys, bonds, mortgages, deeds, title papers, policies of insurance, securities and other property as may be deposited with it by the said party of the second part and to collect all interest, dividends and income that may accrue thereon and pay over and disburse the same under and in pursuance to the directions of the party of the second part, less the amount of one per centum upon such interest, dividends and income as may be so received by the party of the first part, which sum of one per centum the said party of the first part is authorized to retain and which it agrees to receive as full compensation for all its services under this agreement.

The said party of the first part further agrees that it shall and will invest and from time to time reinvest any of the funds of said party of the second part of which it may have the custody under this agreement as directed by the said party of the second part, and shall and will at all times allow to the said party of the second part upon any moneys of the said party of the second part either principal or interest on deposit with it the current rate of interest the same as allowed to other depositors.

The said party of the first part further agrees to see that the property upon which any real estate mortgages shall be deposited with them shall be kept insured against loss or damage by fire in accordance with the terms of such mortgage respectively, and the said party of the second part agrees to reimburse the said party of the first part the amount of any premium or premiums of insurance which the said party of the first part may pay upon any such property unless the same shall be collected by the party of the first part from the mortgagors or their representatives.

The said party of the first part further agrees to deliver to the said party of the second part all or any of such moneys, bonds, mortgages and securities upon the demand of the said party of the second part accompanied by a copy of a resolution of the Executive Committee or Board of Directors or Trustees of said party of the second part, requesting such delivery, duly certified by its Secretary.

And the said party of the first part shall have the right at any time upon thirty days' notice to the said party of the second part to surrender and deliver up to the said party of the second part all moneys, bonds, mortgages, securities and other property which may have been deposited with it by the said party of the second part and thereupon this agreement shall cease and come to an end.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED between the said parties that the liability and responsibility of the said party of the first part shall be such only as ordinarily attaches to the office of a trustee, and while it will use its best endeavors to protect the said party of the second part from loss, it shall not be in any way liable except as aforesaid.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED by and between the parties hereto that the said party of the first part shall and may retain from the income received from any property of which it may have the custody under this agreement the sum of one per centum upon such income as full compensation for all its services under this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said parties hereto have caused their respective corporate seals to be hereunto affixed and these presents to be signed by the proper officers the day and year first above written.

GEO. MACCULLOCH MILLER.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN.

JNO. McL. NASH.

NEW YORK, September 25, 1899.

On motion, the resolutions recommended by the Trustees in the foregoing report were adopted.

The Rev. F. L. Humphreys, D.D., presented the following report:

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund beg leave to report that the funds in their care and the various appropriations therefrom have been much the same as in past years. They have extended such aid as the funds warranted to several faithful clergymen whose incomes hardly gave them a living. They have also made several loans on church property that have enabled the parties so assisted to extend considerably their sphere of action and usefulness.

A detailed report of these funds and the nature of their investment, and the appropriations therefrom will be found in the report of the treasurer herewith appended.

The resignation and subsequent death of Edward A. Quintard is noticed here with regret, and the resignation also of Mr. Henry Dudley was accepted with regret. The secretary was requested to present the same at the Diocesan Convention.

GEO. R. SCHIEFFELIN,
President.

F. L. HUMPHREYS,
Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Humphreys, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Wm. Alex. Smith and Mr. A. R. Flower to serve as Trustees for the term of three years, and for Mr. George Coppel to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Henry Dudley.

The Secretary reported that he had cast the ballot accordingly.

The Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield presented the following report :

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

In surveying the recent past the Board of Managers find many and unusual causes for encouragement. Events of significant national importance have made the interests of the sailor the interests of the entire community, to an extent heretofore unequalled in our history. As he has won more friends it is but reasonable to suppose that some of these will seek out those societies that have been looking after his welfare for many years, and will avail themselves of the valuable experience thus acquired to benefit him.

It is to be remembered that the change in the time of presenting our annual report makes this one cover a period somewhat longer than its predecessor, and the careful examination of the Chaplains' statements renders it evident that the results of our work have been exceptionally gratifying, and we think will manifest to our friends that the future, which promises to call us into fields so much larger and broader, will find us well equipped to undertake the new duties likely to devolve upon us, provided that those who really want to befriend the sailor will faithfully sustain us.

In consequence of the overcrowded condition of the Society's rooms in Coenties Slip, the Board of Managers has added a communicating room at 37 Front Street, greatly increasing the accommodations.

Two legacies have come to us during the past year : one of $2,766 from the estate of Miss Mary A. Edson, and the other of $1,000 from the estate of the late Hosier Morgan ; and how opportune and acceptable they have been can readily be realized when one sees that our expenses have been $23,395.88 and income only $16,423.36, making a deficit of $6,972.02 ; thus rendering it necessary for us to exhaust our Temporary Fund of $4,194.17, and leaving us in a financial condition that seriously threatens to cripple us. As we are, in the main, dependent upon the contributions received from the various churches, it is to be hoped that the rectors throughout the city may each be induced to devote one sermon during the coming year to the promotion of the Society's interests.

We would make grateful recognition of the gift of a small library, placed in the Sailors' Home by the late Mrs. P. E. Arcularius, in memory of her father, the late Dr. Samuel M. Valentine.

The Society has to mourn the death of one of its Lay Vice-Presidents, the late Mr. E. M. Duncan, who was an officer in it for fifty-three years. We have had no more faithful or interested friend and co-worker, and his memory will be long and tenderly cherished by his associates. Of the Honorary Members of our Board we have lost two: Mr. F. H. Trowbridge and Mr. Charles P. Burdett. The former was elected in 1845 and the latter in 1849, so that each had given the Society about half a century of devotion, ever keeping its welfare at heart even unto the end. Such records are most inspiring.

We want to call especial attention to one particular phase of our work which is now of more than ordinary interest, namely:

COÖPERATION FOR IMPROVED LEGISLATION.

Coöperation with other New York societies which labor for the benefit of seamen has been continued by our Board, particularly with a view to needed legislation. The member of our Executive Committee to whom was assigned the duty of conferring with other bodies and of presenting the needs of seamen before the Congressional Committee at Washington was also appointed by the "Joint Conference" to represent the several societies. The Maritime Association of New York and the Committee on Commerce of the United States Senate gave our representative a full and friendly hearing, and our recommendations were embodied in the unanimous report of that Committee, which, in the form of Senate Bill No. 95, received the unanimous vote of the Senate. It reached the House of Representatives too late in the last session for final action, but it is hoped that it may become a law during the session now in progress.

The chief amendments to existing statutes contained in that bill may be summarized as follows:

1. The abolition of imprisonment as a penalty for desertion, in home ports.
2. Vesting discretionary power in courts as to penalties for desertion and other offences in foreign ports.
3. The abolition of all forms of corporal punishment and the better protection of seamen from personal assaults by officers of vessels.
4. Better accommodation in respect of space, ventilation, warm room, and clothing.
5. Invalidating agreements by seamen to forfeit statutory rights as to payment of wages in foreign ports, provisions, water, etc.
6. The improved minimum scale of provisions as to quantity, quality, fresh food and water, fruits and meats, to be had when obtainable.
7. Requiring surveys as to seaworthiness of vessels and of provisions under conditions more favorable to safety and health of seamen and requiring vacancies to be filled by seamen of like grade.
8. Protection and employment of seamen discharged in foreign ports and shipment home.
9. Greater consideration given to seamen in the matter of evidence and testimony in court and better supervision by United States Consuls.
10. Better protection in the matter of allotments, advance wages, and fees for obtaining employment as seamen.
11. Making many of the above provisions applicable to FOREIGN VESSELS as well as to those of the United States.

The Board of Managers adds to its Report the following communication from Captain A. T. Mahan, United States Navy (retired) :

The general missionary work of the Church has long and naturally been divided under two chief heads—Domestic and Foreign Missions ; but, as is the case in matters secular, so in this sacred duty, that space of the globe's surface which unites the two great subdivisions, at the same time that it constitutes the boundary separating the one from the other,—the sea,—has been overlooked by the Church at large as a field for missions. Properly, one would say, considering the vast number of persons now daily embarked upon the deep, and their dependence upon the conscientious fidelity of seamen, the sea should form, in the consciousness of the Church, a third special department, additional to the two great land subdivisions—the Foreign and the Domestic. That it is not so—that we forget—constitutes the imperative necessity for the existence and activity of the Church Missionary Society to Seamen in the Port of New York. When the Church, as a body, recognizes that the sea as well as the land demands her motherly care, that she should seek to build up the character of seamen by spreading among them the light of the gospel, the need for the separate and highly specialized effect of our Society may cease.

Till then, the Church Missionary Society to Seamen, feeble in resources because the members of the Church, as experience shows, pay little heed to seamen, strives to occupy the ground as best it may. Its chief stations are equipped not only for spiritual service, but for social benefit as well ; for physical comfort and mental cheer, other than in the streets and saloons. They stand on the water-fronts, where, as in all great maritime cities, temptation abounds. They serve seamen, not only by direct ministration to them, but indirectly, by the elevating effect upon the neighborhoods which is exerted by whatever stands for good, or actively works for it, as the Church and her missionaries do. Help is asked to maintain and to extend this beneficent work. Whose duty is it to aid ?

A. T. MAHAN.

The Rev. Dr. Harris offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the whole subject of the amendments to Canon XIV., "On the establishment of new places of public worship," be laid over until the next Convention, and that the amendments now before the Committee on Canons be referred to said Committee for further consideration, and that the special Committee on amending said Canon be continued, with instruction to report to next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Dix offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously :

Resolved, That the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese in New York, now assembled in Convention, take this occasion to welcome Admiral Dewey on his safe return home, and to send him, their fellow Churchman, this expression of their personal admiration and regard and of their appreciation of his late brilliant services to our Country.

The Rev. J. M. Chew presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON NEW ACT FOR INCORPORATION OF CHURCHES.

The Committee asks to be continued for the purpose of applying to the Legislature for enactment of the amendment relating to sale and mortgage of Church property, favored by resolution in the last Convention of this Diocese, subject to the consent of the other dioceses or the majority thereof.

On motion the Committee was continued.

The Rev. J. M. Chew presented also the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

The Committee upon the Certificates of Incorporation of Parishes reports the forms required for such purposes under the State law, seven in number, which have been carefully prepared and are now delivered to the Secretary of Convention in obedience to the resolution of last Convention.

Mr. James Pott presented the following reports :

September 25, 1899.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, September 28, 1899.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of the Convention ; the Rev. Charles F. Canedy, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church, New Rochelle ; and the Rev. John H. Watson of Trinity Parish, New York.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion, the calling of the roll of delegates was omitted, and delegates present to-day, but not present yesterday, were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

The Secretary reported to the Convention the following nominations, in accordance with the provisions of Canon IX. :

The Rev. Dr. Grosvenor, the Rev. Dr. Parks, Mr. Henry Lewis Morris, and Mr. A. T. Mahan withdrew their names from the list of nominations for the Standing Committee.

Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie withdrew his name from the list of nominations for the Federate Council.

The Archdeacon of Orange offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That immediately after recess this Convention assemble as the Board of Missions.

On motion, the rule of order requiring the calling of the roll of the names of the clergy and parishes in connection with the elections was dispensed with.

The Committee on the Bishop's Address presented the following report, which was read by the Rev. Dr. Dix :

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

The committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's Address which relates to the divine institution of marriage and the due observance of the Lord's Day, respectfully report :

The committee are glad that the Bishop has now laid his hand upon two of the gravest evils of the hour. The desecration of the Lord's Day, carried to wider extremes of license, is threatening the integrity of this people as a God-fearing nation. The steady spread of loose views as to the stability of the marriage contract, and the reckless ease with which the relations of married people are dissolved by divorce, are similarly threatening the existence of the family and the home. We believe that there are no two points to which our chief pastor could more seasonably have pointed the finger of warning; we wish that his impressive words might be read or heard by every member of the Church in this Diocese and seriously laid to heart.

The Lord's Day was intended to be a time of refreshing for body and soul; a day of rest from toil; a day whereon to give God due honor in His Church; a day for seasonable recreation.

In all these relations, its purpose has been forgotten and its blessing is lost. There is a wide neglect of public worship; there is a growing tendency to turn the day into a time for mere secular amusement and dissipation. Our youth deny an obligation to go to church; they go if they please, but if not, it makes no difference; a large number never appear there. The day is devoted to bicycle riding, excursions, golf, tennis; in the evening the latest scandal is given by large dinners and receptions, with music and other delights; all idea of religious duty or observance is lost; God listens for the voice of man in praise, prayer, and worship, but listens in vain. Judgment must follow on offences such as this; on the complete banishment of religious action from the once sacred day, and its prostitution to the purposes of diversion, amusement, and social dissipation. No nation has ever stood secure which deliberately broke the Fourth Commandment, and left God without one day in the seven to call His own. And the class which have done the most to desecrate the day by frivolous and gay looseness of living is that one which, by conspicuous social position, wealth, and opportunity, might have thrown the heaviest weight into the scale on the side of orderly living and respect for divine institutions. The fashionable class, as they are called, are easily leaders in the melancholy work of corrupting the morals of the community and the manners of the age.

In the fatal drift on the way towards a general undoing of the marriage tie, we have reached a point at which men and women are looking about with amazement, and with the wish to know what can be done to avert a dire and wide calamity. Divorces multiply; facilities for separation are liberally afforded; the circumstances under which the marriage bond is dissolved render the process more and more offensive; in many instances shame would seem to have fled, and conscience and the sense of duty to have become extinct. Men and women outrage the divine law, and render themselves liable to prosecution and punishment under our human statutes; they easily obtain the dissolution of the ties by which they were bound by mutual promise and vow; they proceed with as little delay as possible to enter into new relations contrary to God's word, and stigmatized as adulterous by our Lord Jesus Christ; and yet these offenders are permitted to retain their place in the circles in which they move; their actions, though criminal in the eye of the law and the judgment of the courts, are condoned in society; and they are accepted as in good standing and beyond reproach. Families are broken up; homes ruined under frivolous pretences, or at the dictate of lawless passion; yet it is assumed that these things should be left to the individual as his or her personal concern, and not the concern of the social circle in which they move; and feeble, if any, opposition is made to the exoneration and full rehabilitation of offenders whose acts merit the reproof of just and honorable men. These sins against human and divine law are not committed only by the low, the degraded, and the ignorant; they are most conspicuously manifest in the case of what are known as the higher classes; persons arrogating to themselves the character of social leaders have been among the most reckless in contempt for obligation and duty, and most flagrant among the offenders against God and Christian institutions; while it is a deplorable fact that their associates and companions in the very class which might and ought to exert a salutary influence in frowning on transgression and trying to keep society pure, appear to take their part, and even to justify and applaud their conduct. We are reaching a point at which alarm is daily growing greater, and disgust and indignation are more widely felt; a point at which the opinion is gaining ground, to which the Bishop has referred, that legislation is advisable which shall prohibit the remarriage of divorced persons under any circumstances whatever.

We are therefore thankful that the Bishop of New York has called the attention of the clergy and laity of this Diocese to our danger, a danger which increases. Legislation on this subject may be useful in this connection; but, if taken, it must be taken by the General Convention. A Joint Commission, composed of bishops, clergy, and laity, have under consideration the canons relating to marriage and divorce. A committee of clerical and lay deputies are similarly engaged, in an effort to devise means for the more effectual protection of families and our homes. The prayers of the people should daily ascend to God, that He will give wisdom and understanding to our Church legislators, and light to see what they should do. But it must be felt, by all, that legislation will prove of little avail, unless the conscience and heart of the people can be touched; that the evil lies in the unruly wills and affections of sinful men and sinful women. There, after all, must the reform begin; and if it does not begin there and proceed thence, there is little hope in canons and laws.

Your committee, profoundly impressed by the danger signals of these times, and grateful to the Bishop for his strong words and valuable suggestions, offer for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the thanks of the clergy and laity of this Diocese be given to their Bishop for his utterances on the subject of the Lord's Day and the ordinance of Holy Matrimony.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Convention that the attention of all our people should be called to the portion of the Address which was referred to us.

Resolved, That we view with sorrow and fear the wide decay in the observance of the Lord's Day, and other sacred times and seasons of the Christian year.

Resolved, That we regard with similar dread and sadness of heart the decay of the idea of the sanctity of marriage, and the ease with which the marriage tie is dissolved.

Resolved, That it be respectfully suggested to the clergy of this Diocese, that they call the attention of their congregations, at such time or times as may be suitable, to the recent counsels of the Bishop in those parts of his Address relating to the Lord's Day and Holy Matrimony, adding thereto their own counsel and advice on these unspeakably important subjects.

All which is respectfully submitted.

On motion, the resolutions recommended by the committee were adopted unanimously.

The Rev. Dr. Hoffman offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That two thousand copies of the Bishop's Address and of the report of the committee upon it be printed separately and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Secretary presented the following :

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention, who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose parishes have contributed to the Fund, as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the canonical, customary, and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

Resolved, 2. That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XV. of the Diocese, from every congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the Conventional year 1899-1900 be one per cent. on the amount of the salary of its clergyman.

Resolved, 3. That the sum of $500 be appropriated for expenses at the See House, 29 Lafayette Place.

AUGUSTUS WIGGIN,
LEWIS C. POPHAM,
D. PARKER MORGAN,
WM. N. DUNNELL.

On motion, the resolutions were adopted.

The time for recess having arrived, the Convention adjourned for one hour.

On reassembling the Inspectors of Election presented their reports :

The Rev. Dr. Olssen presented the following report :

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary respectfully report that it has opened with the usual number of students, and bids fair to have a very successful year.

The new buildings are progressing rapidly, and it is expected will be soon occupied, to the great advantage of the students.

There is one vacancy in the Board of Trustees, caused by the death of Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and to fill this vacancy your committee would nominate Mr. James J. Goodwin.

The committee wish to congratulate the Church upon the high standing in both education and spiritual training which is maintained at this institution.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. W. OLSSEN,
CHARLES F. CANEDY,
CHARLES F. HOFFMAN, JR.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Richey, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. James J. Goodwin was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees, caused by the death of Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That the Sunday-school Commission, as appointed at the last Convention, be continued.

Resolved, That the Committee on Special Services and Public Meeting for Convention be continued.

At the request of the Chairman of the Committee on Canons, that committee was discharged from the further consideration of the proposed amendments to Canon XIV.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

The Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates appointed by the Bishop have examined the certificates of Lay Delegates of the several parishes, and find them to be correct, with the exception of the following : St. James Church, New York ; Trinity, Sing Sing ; Christ Church, Yonkers ; and Christ Church, Warwick, which seem to the committee to be irregular.

BRADY E. BACKUS, Chairman.
EDW. W. SATTERLEE.

September 28, 1899.

The committee, in explanation, stated that the irregularity in said credentials consisted in the substitution of one or more names in the place of those originally written in the certificates, and suggested that in the future a new blank be procured from the Secretary, when such substitutions became necessary.

The Rev. Dr. Brown presented the following report :

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The undersigned, a committee appointed at the last Convention, to whom was referred the report of the Acting Warden of St. Stephen's College, "with instructions to confer with the Trustees and Alumni of the College," and in connection with the former to determine upon such action for the best interests and permanent well-being of the Institution, beg leave to report :

That in obedience to such instructions a formal conference was held with the Alumni through a special delegation appointed by the Alumni Association for that purpose. Subsequently, a duly authorized Committee from the Board of Trustees met with the Diocesan Committee, and after a full consideration of the condition and needs of St. Stephen's College, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That in the opinion of this committee it would be for the best interests of the Church in this Diocese and of St. Stephen's College that the collegiate character of the latter should be continued, and that a consolidation of St. Stephen's College with Hobart College would be desirable, provided it can be made upon such conditions as will properly safeguard the interests of St. Stephen's College as regards its property rights and past degrees.

Your committee have had no official information of the ratification of this united action, and respectfully ask to be discharged from further consideration of the matter.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference Committee that the collegiate character of St. Stephen's College should be preserved.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference Committee that there should be, if possible, a consolidation of St. Stephen's College and Hobart College.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference Committee that, in the event of a consolidation of St. Stephen's College and Hobart College, the land and buildings now of St. Stephen's College, at Annandale, should be utilized for the purposes of a School under the auspices of the Church.

Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie withdrew his name from the list of nominations for the Federate Council.

The Archdeacon of Orange offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That immediately after recess this Convention assemble as the Board of Missions.

On motion, the rule of order requiring the calling of the roll of the names of the clergy and parishes in connection with the elections was dispensed with.

The Committee on the Bishop's Address presented the following report, which was read by the Rev. Dr. Dix :

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

The committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's Address which relates to the divine institution of marriage and the due observance of the Lord's Day, respectfully report :

removed the parish house from the position it held next to the rectory to a site nearer the centre of the village. The church in the old village of Newcastle is too far from the newer village of Mt. Kisco. By placing the parish house as a chapel nearer the railroad station, and holding night services there, Mr. Chamberlaine can better serve his people, and minister to the old and new villages. The work of removal was at once paid for, through the efforts of the rector and the generous help of friends of the mission. The meetings of the Archdeaconry have been well attended during the year. An unusual interest has been felt by the rectors and parishes in the work of the Archdeaconry, and in meeting the apportionments suggested by the Executive Committee.

8. The Archdeacon of Orange reports that there have been three changes in the personnel of the missionary staff, caused by the resignations of the Rev. J. Anketell of Walden, of the Rev. H. P. Hobson of Milton and Highland, and of the Rev. F. N. Strader of Ellenville. Walden has been supplied by the calling of the Rev. James G. Lewis, D.D., of our own Diocese, and Ellenville, which has only lately become vacant, will soon receive a missionary by appointment of the Bishop. Milton and Highland have been combined, and placed under the charge of the Rev. Charles A. Tibbals.

One new missionary station has been opened, making twenty-one mission stations, which are served by fifteen missionaries.

Referring to the last annual report as published in the Journal of the Convention of the Diocese, it will be noticed that reference was made to the encouraging record of Chester, Orange County, and it was then stated that the missionary and trustees confidently expected to ask for the consecration of the church building by St. Paul's Day, 1900. They have not only kept their word, but much more; and in July the Bishop of New York consecrated the completed and paid for structure under the name of St. Paul's Church, Chester. This is the record itemized: Corner-stone laid on May 16, 1898; service of dedication on the Feast of the Transfiguration, August 6, 1898; Consecration, July 22, 1899. It is a record that speaks volumes for the energy, devotion, and liberal offerings of both minister and people.

Under the head of "New Work," the Archdeaconry reports the promising station of Chichester, Ulster County, to whose establishment and development the Archdeacon has given much personal care and thought. It has now the regular ministrations of the Rev. Arthur Wynne Shaw. Chichester is a manufacturing village of nearly 400 souls—having close touch with Phoenicia, a village of 500 inhabitants. The factory for desks, chairs, and church furniture is owned and managed by Mr. William O. Schwarzwaelder, a loyal Churchman and liberal man. He has provided an excellent and well-furnished frame church building in perfect repair and entirely adapted to our liturgical service. He supplies heat and light and contributes liberally to the salary of the missionary. It is his ultimate purpose to deed the church property to the "Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese," and he stands ready to do this at any time. There is no other house of worship in the village, and ninety per cent. of the inhabitants attend our Church and Sunday-school.

The church attendance at St. Paul's, Chichester, during June, July, and August, has varied from 81 to 94; and that of the Sunday-school from 29 to 69. Average attendance at Sunday-school, 63; average attendance at church:

morning, 45 ; evening, 67. From these figures it will readily be perceived that this new field is full of promise, and that the interest is general and well sustained. When one-half of the population of a village, town, or city is present at church and Sunday-school on summer Sundays throughout the warm weather, we may safely say that there is decided encouragement, and a hopeful response on the part of the community to the efforts of the Church.

Further new work within the Archdeaconry of Orange is the laying of the corner-stone of a new chapel at Rifton Glen, called St. Thomas' Chapel, and served by the Rev. Henry Barker of Rosendale. This corner-stone was laid by the Archdeacon in the presence of several visiting clergy and a large assemblage on Saturday, September 9, 1899. The Rev. Mr. Barker and his devoted people have shown commendable energy in bringing the building to its present stage and assuring its completion.

A thorough visitation of the Wallkill Valley region, bordering on the railway, and unsupplied by services of our Church, has been made by the Rev Mr. Barker, under the direction of the Archdeacon, and such ministrations have been furnished as were practicable.

Besides our regular stations maintained the year round, summer services, as usual, have been kept up and the sacraments administered at Greenwood Lake, Orange County ; and also at Mead's Mount and Big Indian in the Catskill Mountains, where there are neat and well-furnished churches. The chapel at Greenwood Lake is not owned by us, but is appropriated to our use by its trustees.

The church at Big Indian was largely built through the efforts of the Rev. William F. Lewis, Rector of Peekskill, and its services have been maintained by himself and his son, the Rev. Charles Smith Lewis, Fellow of the General Theological Seminary. The building and furniture cost $1,151.56, and horse sheds, $146.72. During the last five years there have been twenty-six baptisms here, ten of which were adults. Ten have been confirmed, and nine have become communicants. These details are given to illustrate the necessarily leavening influence of the Church in a sparsely settled mountain community. The same kind of work has been going on at Greenwood Lake and Mead's Mount.

At Pine Hill, also in the Catskills, there is a regularly organized parish ; but the work was begun under the Archdeacon of Orange, who, with the Rev. G. A. Carstensen, now of Indiana, broke the first sod for the foundation of the present handsome church.

The general outlook is favorable, and the results accomplished during the year give much ground for thankfulness.

4. The Archdeaconry of Richmond reports that, notwithstanding the necessity of some changes among the missionaries, the condition of the Archdeaconry is encouraging.

The Rev. H. N. Lawrence, at Concord, has continued to show much activity in the conduct of his parochial organizations, in which the new parish building has been very helpful. The Sunday-school and other organizations prosper. The year has closed without any deficit, and the prospects are bright.

The mission at Garrettson's has held its own, under the same missionary, and it is hoped that before long a new chapel may be built.

At Erastina the work has gone on encouragingly under the Rev. W.

Sweeney, who took the place of the Rev. Mr. Queale. He reports an increase in the number of communicants, steady growth in the Sunday-school, and a financial condition without debt.

The Rev. R. H. Locke has had charge of Eltingville and New Dorp for several months, and reports substantial progress. The growth in Eltingville is slow, but sure, and at New Dorp there is a fair prospect of building a small chapel, which will insure the success of the Church in that place. The work in both places has been carried on under discouraging circumstances, and great credit is due to Mr. Locke for even partial success.

5. The Archdeaconry of New York during the last year has strengthened its stakes, but has not greatly lengthened its cords. The work which it has done has been well done, but its sphere of work has been limited by the lack of resources. The few churches which have heretofore contributed have done distinctly better than ever before, but their number has not been increased. Four-fifths of the city churches at least do nothing for the cause of Church extension through the Archdeaconry of New York. Great opportunities lie in wait for the Church, if only the churches could be awakened to seize them.

The three missions of St. Stephen's at Woodlawn, St. George's at Williamsbridge, and St. David's (colored) at 611 East 158th Street have been carried on more vigorously than ever. At Woodlawn, by the assistance of the residents themselves and the appropriation by the Archdeaconry of sums contributed for a building fund, the Archdeaconry has acquired excellent lots for the location and erection of a parish building; but the money for the building is as yet wholly lacking and there is a mortgage on the land for a third of its value. A resident priest has been supplied to this mission whose efficient labors have caused this notable increase of strength.

St. George's, at Williamsbridge, has been regularly supplied with the services of a priest; and by the efforts of the congregation the church edifice, which the people of the mission hire at their own cost, has been beautified with new carpets and other suitable furniture and decorations.

St. David's, the colored mission in East 158th Street, has grown in numbers and influence and is in a most healthy state. The ministrations of the clergyman in charge, since he became a priest one year ago, have been more efficient than ever. There is an immediate demand for money to buy lots and build a suitable chapel and parish house thereon, not in order to stimulate growth, but to meet the demands which have already grown.

The Archdeaconry has no need to blush for the work done under its direction. The treasurer's report will give the item of receipts and expenditure, but these will give no adequate idea of the spiritual effort and result of the work to which the sums have been applied.

There is, moreover, an ever-increasing call for greater work, both in establishing and strengthening the missions which exist and in establishing new ones.

The Lay Helpers' Association of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, under the efficient headship of their president, Mr. Eugene M. Camp, have been acting under the advice and coöperation of the Archdeacon of New York. They have organized and manned with lay workers four Sunday-school centres which are taking on a quasi-mission character, with the evening Church services conducted by lay readers for the parents and neighbors of the children who attend the schools. These stations are called respectively "St. Margaret's," at the east end of 156th Street; "St. Simeon's," at 163d Street, Melrose; "The Advocate," at 178th Street, Tremont; and "St. Alban's," at Highbridgeville, just south of Highbridge, which is under the care of a perpetual deacon. These mission schools have heretofore supported themselves, but their very success calls out for such ministerial supervision and labor as they of themselves cannot as yet furnish. In fine, the work of Church extension into the new districts of the city, which is the especial work of the Archdeaconry of New York, is of supreme importance to the future of the Church and the welfare of the city, and earnestly calls other churches to awaken to their opportunity.

The missions to foreign-speaking peoples of New York City have been carried on as hitherto by the parochial boards having them in charge on behalf of the Archdeaconry.

The foregoing facts are eloquent. Much has been accomplished, but much left undone, for opportunities are being lost because they are not embraced. The necessity of a larger giving is obvious, and very plain is the duty of calling the attention of the congregations of the Diocese to the claims of that missionary work in city and country which the Diocese herself attempts to do. Meantime, a deep and devout thankfulness should fill our hearts for the remarkable results which have crowned our expenditure of money, and the zeal and self-sacrifice of our devoted missionaries.

The Board of Managers asks for the appropriation of at least $25,000 for the ensuing year. All which is respectfully submitted.

OCTAVIUS APFLEGATE,
W. R. THOMAS,
IRVING GRINNELL.

The Rev. Dr. Vibbert offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Board of Missions of the Diocese of New York be authorized to prepare a map or maps showing the towns and villages where the Church is established, also those devoid of the services of the Church, and especially the location of stations where missionary work is carried on :—and that at the meeting of the Convention, sitting as the Board of Missions, the Archdeacons be requested to explain from such maps the condition of the missionary work in their several Archdeaconries.

On motion of the Archdeacon of New York, the sum of $25,000 was appropriated for the expenses of the Board of Missions during the ensuing year.

Mr. James Pott presented the following report :

A noteworthy incident of our history during the present year, and one of more than local interest, has been the completion of so much of the cathedral as enabled us to erect in the crypt the beautiful altar with its adjuncts, presented to the cathedral by a Churchwoman of the Diocese of Chicago,* and to inaugurate service there on January 8th, the First Sunday after the Epiphany. These have been continued, uninterruptedly, since then, and it is our hope to establish in connection with them, for the present in the building known as the Cathedral House, a choir school, which shall furnish a standard of Church music of the highest character, and which shall be modelled upon the famous schools, lately visited for that purpose by our representative, at King's College, Cambridge, at Magdalen College, Oxford, at St. Paul's Cathedral in London, and elsewhere in the mother country. For this purpose, as also for prosecuting the work of construction, we shall need the help of the Church throughout the Diocese, and to that end it has been suggested that the anniversary of the first service held within the walls of the cathedral, the First Sunday after the Epiphany, shall be known as "Cathedral Sunday," when offerings shall be asked for its work.

Another interesting and gratifying feature of our statistics is the large number of consecrations of churches which mark the year, and which, in different parts of the Diocese, and under widely dissimilar circumstances, indicate the vigorous growth and progress of the Church. For this we may well thank God and take courage.

They are accompanied, however, by those tokens of change, in other directions, of which it is no less our duty to take note, and concerning which the Church ought to be governed by a definite and consistent policy. There are cases, for instance, both in this city and in rural districts, where the Church, which once had a considerable and sustaining constituency, has now no longer anything of the sort. I have in mind, e.g., at this moment, one rural parish where death and removal have left but one single family which acknowledges any connection with, or any responsibility for, the Church. Under such circumstances the maintenance of its services, in view of the just claims of other places of larger promise and a more numerous constituency upon the missionary funds of the Church, must be regarded as largely sentimental. We are bound, in the Lord's business, as in any other, to use trust funds where they will earn the best return. That is a fundamental principle of common honesty which very properly dismisses sentimentalism to the rear. But when you have said this as to such an instance as I have referred to, it must be remembered that it in no wise applies to those other instances, in a great city such as this, which I confess are to me a constant occasion of the deepest concern. I have heretofore expressed myself as to our somewhat hasty generalization with reference to the maintenance of old churches in long-established sites with what, I presume, was sufficient clearness. Of such churches, some have, undoubtedly, what might be described as a monumental value. Others have, what is of much more consequence, a clear spiritual mission, and others have neither. To maintain these last, as some churches in London are maintained, when they have absolutely no longer any constituency whatever, and where, as I have seen again and again, the minister reads prayers to the pew-opener, and draws meantime, from ancient foundations, a considerable stipend, upon which he spends a large part of his time in foreign lands, delegating his skeleton duty to an underpaid curate, this is the mockery of trust-administration, whether towards God or man, and deserves to be no otherwise described. There are points in our own see city where the situation is practically so nearly identical with this that to make the silly outcry that has again and again been made where a church has been removed, is to trifle with the intelligence of those to whom it is addressed.

But there remains another class of churches to which this in no sense applies. With time their surrounding constituency greatly changes, and those who were once closely identified with them, influenced by social and other considerations, have removed to distant parts of the city. For a while, personal or hereditary attachments held them to their old parish. But with lapse of time such ties become inevitably more and more attenuated, until at last they snap. Now, in such a case it may easily be that, while the whole social environment of this old parish has changed, it has not wholly changed. There are, e.g., Hebrews and Italians, Germans and Poles, all around, but there are also large numbers of our own race, and considerable numbers of our own people. In the immediate neighborhood of the Pro-Cathedral, e.g., it is estimated that we have over one hundred thousand Israelites; but we know that we have also, quite as close at hand, some twenty thousand Christians—and that would seem to furnish us with a sufficient warrant for our work.

The case, in one important aspect of it, is typical, and it is for that reason that I advert to it now. There are parishes in this city which were once the chief bulwarks of the Church's strength and glory; and which, in the splendid work which they are doing to-day for all sorts and conditions of men, are among its brightest ornaments; but whose power and prosperity are increasingly threatened by the tendency to which I have just referred. Households which were and are among their chief elements of strength drop away from them for the reasons which I have indicated, and withdraw, in going, their contributions to the maintenance of the common work. I want, here, to entreat such persons to recognize, under such circumstances, both their responsibility and their privilege. If, in such cases, you must go, see to it that you leave your gift behind you! If you must surrender your place in the pew, keep it in the subscription list.

For here you are dealing not with a sentimental, but with a social and moral crisis. Believe me, my brethren, we cannot take the Church out of the moral and social life of New York and leave anything that can pretend to take its place. I recognize, and have cordially identified myself with, movements of a social or educational character among our most crowded and least cared for districts, and hope to continue to do so. The case, when you reduce it to its practical equation in connection with the whole problem of the poor and neglected in cities, is one of agencies and instrumentalities. If the Church has not at hand the tool, or man, or woman, for a particular task, she may wisely employ, or honor if she does not employ, such social mechanisms as, being wholesome and helpful, are fitted to a particular occasion. And in this spirit she may honor, and herself reproduce, University or College Settlements (let it be remembered that in that whole departure Oxford House set the pace), or any other of the manifold and gracious agencies—the crèche, the kindergarten, the club room, the libraries, recreation halls, and all the rest—which social interest and sympathy have reared among us to-day.

But when these things are done, and other greater things are done, which as yet largely remain in nubibus; when our tenements are rebuilt, and their occupancy regulated by just laws; when we have torn down whole blocks of buildings, as we are doing to-day in New York, and converted them into blooming parks—even then we have not laid the foundations of a stable civilization, nor reared the walls of a righteous social order.

There is but one Hand that can do that, but one Divine Force that can maintain it! And here to-day and forever we see the place, in such a community as this, in such a nation as this, of Religion and the divinely appointed institutions of Religion. In one word, the world still waits for the message, the standards, the eternal authority of Jesus Christ, in His Word and in His Church. Take these out of human society, and so far as its decay and downfall, sooner or later, are concerned, it is of very little consequence what else you leave. If we review the history of what we are wont to call the higher civilizations, we shall find that their progress and their permanence have largely turned upon the Christian sanctions which, absent in Greece and Rome, doomed those earlier civilizations, for want of them, to decay and ruin. The family, e.g., is indeed older than the Catholic Church, but it was the religion of Jesus Christ which took the family, consecrated its venerable relations, ennobled its original authority, and lifted its august sanctions into their divinest place. And to-day it must be that same supernatural institution that shall both interpret and define for us what, in that and kindred fellowships, we owe, first to God and then to one another.

The subject relates itself very closely to another divine institution, to which of late the public attention has been drawn and with which the Church in this land has very seriously concerned itself—I need hardly say that I refer to the institution of marriage. Our General Convention at its last session gave, as you know, considerable attention to the proposed amendments of our very inadequate Canon (as it seems to me) of Marriage and Divorce. Its councils were, as you are aware, divided upon the question whether that Canon could best be amended by withdrawing from it all authorization of remarriage, whether under the sanction of our Lord's words in St. Matthew xix. 9th, 10th, or otherwise; or, by making more stringent the conditions under which it should be competent for the Ordinary to sanction, with the authority of these words, the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce. I need not reopen that discussion here. The Church will doubtless always be divided as to the authority of those words of Holy Scripture to which I have referred, and no less divided as to the measure of discretion which it is wise to vest in the Ordinary. But, meantime, the whole subject has gained a new aspect from events to which I need not more particularly refer here, which have undoubtedly awakened in all sober-minded Christian people a profound sense of alarm; and the consensus of opinion among them as to the necessity of legislation which shall prohibit the remarriage of divorced persons, under any circumstances whatever, has greatly widened and deepened.

I am by no means sure that such a conclusion is not the wisest that we may reach at present; for undoubtedly it must be owned that, in the face of such a danger as threatens us, the only safe course may be to prohibit absolutely that which, while it might be permissible if we could always be sure that it had a Scriptural justification for it, is only wrong and evil when that justification, existing in fact, exists, e.g., only because it has been fraudulently obtained. Here the judgment of eminent publicists and legal authorities concur, and some of them of foremost rank as jurists and Churchmen have agreed in the opinion that our only safe canon, in view of tendencies painfully evident among us, is one in which the Church refuses remarriage to persons divorced for any cause arising after marriage, absolutely and universally.

Such a remedy for our present evils would doubtless be, as some of us may think, a very drastic one, but the evil has grown to such proportions, it may justly be answered, that we can meet it with no other; and in one sense this is undoubtedly true. A wider view of the whole subject, however, will disclose to us, I think, the fact that it is not the only remedy, and that if accepted as a final solution of the whole social problem of which, after all, it is but a small part, we are destined to be disappointed as to its results.

For that wider view will reveal to us that the social relations of our time, in all their various ramifications, have been profoundly affected by causes which reside in the character of our free institutions and in that Zeitgeist—that spirit of the age—in which the historian of the future will discern perhaps its mightiest force. I may best describe that spirit so far as we are here concerned with it as the spirit of individualism. The great movement which issued, here, in the revolt of the American colonies and their subsequent separation from the mother country was only part of a larger whole, which profoundly affected not only the mother country but France, Germany, and, later, Italy—which is at work to-day even in Russia, and which has wholly or partially dethroned some of the most widely ruling ideas of earlier ages. I may not trace its progress elsewhere; but here, at any rate, it has issued in the almost complete abrogation of some earlier forms of authority, and not only that, but of some of the most venerable and sacred tradition of the community and the state. In this direction nothing has been more serious than those results which have affected the family, and especially the institutions and obligations of marriage. These last have come to be so lightly regarded that now, at length, the least thoughtful among us are beginning to realize the vicious tendencies in some forty or fifty different commonwealths of our composite and contradictory legislation; and to recognize that the facility with which the marriage relation may be taken on and put off is a menace to the foundations of society and the jest of the civilized world.

It would be well that the Church should meet such a situation with a stern front, and with legislation which, so far as she is concerned, will make divorce increasingly difficult if not impossible. But she must do a great deal more than that; and she must beware of the delusion that in doing only that she has done anything more than a very small part of her duty. However we may safeguard the solemnization of Holy Matrimony, we must no less lift up and safeguard the approaches to it. No legislation, whether ecclesiastical or civil, which touches only the terms and conditions of the contract itself will do a work which must needs be done before it is entered into. We may reiterate with utmost solemnity, "Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder"; it will be quite in vain unless we see to it that those reasonable precautions of forethought, inquiry, publicity, and of intelligent understanding of the obligations to be assumed, which once obtained, have preceded it. These were wise provisions of our fathers' times, but that spirit of individualism which, in the case of the authority of the Church, would brook none of those things, has swept them away; and a man and woman—a boy and girl, indeed, to all intents and purposes—may walk into the study of a priest in this Diocese, and be married out of hand without any license from the State, or warning in the Church, or any other preliminary, in fact, than such as consists in—must I say it?—the sometimes very indifferent discretion of the Minister. Believe me, no Canon of Marriage which does not reach back a good way in a precautionary discretion will be, here, of any substantial avail; and if we are aiming, as I hope we may, to set a higher standard here, I hope it may be wide enough at its base to include aspects of this whole subject which in our current discussions of it are largely overlooked.

For here the Church's office should be not merely to reestablish and exalt the ancient sanctities of marriage, but first of all that most ancient institution in which it took its rise. The decay of the august sacredness of marriage in our day is not more alarming than the painful tokens which salute us of the disintegration of the Home. A clever paper, which I saw not long ago in a foreign periodical, describes a home which had lost its surviving parent. The executor of the estate, a life-long friend of the family, is pointing out to the family the resources available to them if they continue to live together; and each in turn then gives the reasons which, in the case of the several individuals, make any such course impossible. They are frivolous reasons, supremely selfish reasons; but they triumph to the complete breaking up of a home, and furnish one more illustration of the disintegrating power (even when it touches so sacred and venerable a thing) of individualism. We must needs recognize that vicious influence in the decay of parental authority, in the early impatience of it on the part of boys and girls, in the increasing reluctance to exercise it where its exercise involves pain and painstaking, in the strident note—in one word, in so many homes whose cry is, "I will," or, "I won't," and not, "I ought."

Such a situation, dear brethren, calls for clear and plain teaching from the pulpit, and the still mightier teaching of a high and fine example in all our homes. If we are to see, in the matter of our domestic obligations, whether they are marital, filial, or parental, that wide awakening of the Christian conscience which our land so sorely needs, it will be because the principle of a divine authority over all these relations has been revived and enthroned anew among us, and because, in the training of our children, and in the consecration of every other most sacred tie, we have refused to go below it.

The application of that august authority in other aspects of it is a no less sore need of these times. It ought surely to sober us that, along with the decay of family integrity, and the sanctity of the marriage tie, there has gone, side by side, a no less wide decay of the observance of the Lord's Day and of other sacred times and seasons. In our eagerness to prove that we are no longer Puritans, some of us seem anxious to demonstrate that we are pagans; and the secularization of the Lord's Day, especially by people with abundant leisure, on other days, for social exchanges and every kind of recreation, is a scandal of which they who are guilty of it should be ashamed, and for which all Christian people have cause to grieve. There are, indeed, those whose hard tasks and scant leisure on week-days may in some measure excuse the employment of some part of Sunday in innocent relaxation; but pleas of this sort, in the mouths of many who urge them, deserve alone the derision or the contempt of every honest mind. I beseech you, clergy and laity alike, that here you stand fast! Guard sacredly the Lord's Day and other holy times! When Lent comes, do not let it be, as it is often made to be, merely an exchange of one kind of dissipation for another. In God's name, give your soul a chance that He may speak to you; that His House may welcome you; that His Holy Word may instruct and enlighten you; and that, out of this whirl and rush of things that perish in the using, you may ascend into those upper airs where, amid the golden candlesticks, He walks who is your Saviour and your King!

Our last Convention, in accordance with a recommendation made in my Address, appointed a committee on the due care of Trust Funds, whose most wise and valuable report you will find in the last Journal. I am heartily thankful to be able to say that, in accordance with the important recommendations of that committee, a new and most admirable system for the care of Trust Funds has been adopted by all the larger ecclesiastical corporations of a diocesan character; and it is interesting to note that, in this matter, the Board of Missions has followed our lead. It would be difficult to exaggerate the value of this action, both in the interest of the particular trusts more especially concerned and as an example to the whole Church; and I take the liberty in your names to return our hearty thanks to the able members of the committee by whom the result has been achieved.

A year ago, in connection with this occasion, I sought for one moment, in conclusion, to turn your thoughts to that wider horizon which includes more than our own interests or our own boundaries. We had occasion then to rejoice that a great ruler had lifted his voice for that which was the burden of the angelic song of welcome to the Babe of Bethlehem, "Peace on Earth. Good will to men." What he then proposed and hoped for has not indeed, at any rate in the form in which he proposed it, come to pass. But something else, and in one aspect of it something even greater than he proposed, has been achieved, and has prepared the way for greater things to follow it. The constitution by the Hague Conference, with the concurrence of the world-wide powers represented in it, of an International Board of Arbitration, is a step forward of transcendent and incalculable importance. It has, by that one act, altered forever the relations of all civilized peoples; and though it has not abolished war, it has introduced one condition precedent, the voluntary invocation of which will one day, I venture to predict, become no longer voluntary, because it has been made compulsory by the nobler and wiser consensus of the civilized world. Such an achievement alone is great enough to redeem our century from historic insignificance, and to lift it, for all time, to great place in the progress of mankind!

May we be willing to learn the lessons of it within our own borders! "Love the truth and peace," says an Apostle. Then the two things are not irreconcilable. May we prove all things, may we hold fast that which is good, and, most of all, may we build the walls of the Kingdom of God not with the untempered mortar of hate and vituperation, but with meekness and gentleness, striving together with one heart and with one mouth for the things that make for the glory of God and the extension of His Kingdom among men.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Church are working faithfully to have a Rectory built in New City, and have now in the bank for that purpose about $360.

The prisoners at the county gaol have been regularly visited and, thanks to the President of the Church Periodical Club and other kind friends, have been supplied with books, magazines, and papers, which have been thankfully received.

Services have been held at the County Almshouse, and the inmates were not forgotten at Christmas by the ladies of St. Peter's, Westchester, and the ladies of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York City. The poor people residing at the foot of the South Mountain have been visited and food and clothing distributed amongst them at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's.

The Parish was served by the Rev. Emil Montanus as Assistant to the Rector, the Rev. Charles F. Canedy, D.D., until October 1, 1898. The Rector also resigned, April 1, 1899, and the Rev. Edward H. True was appointed Minister in charge with the approval of the Bishop of this Diocese, and is still officiating. The Parish owns a Parish House, situated on Summit Avenue (about two miles from the Parish Church), where regular services and a Sunday-school are held on every Sunday afternoon. The Endowment of the Parish amounts to $6,200, and there is also $403.08 on interest in the savings bank. There are no debts of any kind in the Parish, and the small number of members reported is due to great losses by death and removal.

Beginning with the 1st of October, the real work of the revival of the Church of the Archangel began. A small hall on West 116th Street had been rented and was in daily use during the remainder of the year. St. Michael's Church appointed Mr. Pratt to certain services in that Parish up to May, for which he received generous remuneration, but aside from this the new congregation has paid all expenses. A Building Fund has also been started, which has reached the sum of $572.42, which is deposited in the New York Security and Trust Co., and can be drawn from only on the signatures of both the Rector and Treasurer.

The Rector has received cards containing the names of 629 families residing within the bounds of the Parish who announced themselves as Protestant Episcopalians in a house-to-house canvass made by the Federation of Churches and Christian Workers. There are nine built-up blocks in our Parish bounds not included in that canvass.

We are practically a new Church. Ten years ago it appeared that there was room and a demand for the Church of the Archangel. Since that time the Parish has changed from being a sparsely settled neighborhood to a thronging district, and in that time there has been no increase of Church accommodations. It is comparatively an unchurched section. A Baptist Church worshipping in a hall on 116th Street, a small Presbyterian and a smaller Reformed Presbyterian Church on the extreme north limit of the Parish are—except a Roman Catholic Church—the only churches.

The apparent discrepancy between last year's report of present number of communicants, and that of this year, is accounted for by the number of names erased from the books, the Rector, in the absence of any law on the subject and in the interests of accuracy, having erased all those not known to have received the sacrament for the last five years.

The work of our East Side Chapel, supported by the men of the Parish, and under the direct superintendence of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, has been richly blessed and largely increased this past year. The statistics of communicants, scholars in Sunday-school, Kindergarten and Sewing Schools, are included in those of the Parish.

The Rector would avail himself of this opportunity to express his heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God for signal favors during the past unusual year, and also to record his profound appreciation of the love and loyalty of his congregation, severely tested by extraordinary experiences, and manifested by a unanimity which can never be forgotten.

The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. No Rector was ever more substantially supported by efficient clerical assistance and an untiring, devoted laity, than has been the Rector of St. Andrew's during the past, and most eventful, year.

During the past year the Chapel, situated on 148th Street west of Amsterdam Avenue, has been completed. The corner-stone was laid on the Feast of the Transfiguration, August 6th. The first service was held on Advent Sunday. The consecration took place on St. Stephen's Day, December 26th. Regular services have been held since the opening. A society called "The Parishioners of St. Ann's Church for Deaf Mutes" has been formed, composed of baptized Deaf Mutes who undertake to contribute regularly to the support of the Chapel. The Rector of St. Matthew's is Counsellor; the Vicar, President; and the Curate, Vice-President. There is a Guild of Silent Workers and a Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The work of St. Ann's Chapel for Deaf Mutes, built according to terms of consolidation of St. Ann's Church with St. Matthew's, is thus well begun, and gives promise of steady and healthy growth.

The new Church was completed during the year, and was used for the first time on July 3, 1898. The total cost was $52,166.30. This was paid up in full, but for various reasons the consecration was postponed till the summer of 1899. On January 29, 1899, the Archdeacon read the Bishop's Decree of Secularization of the old Church building, which passes out of the possession of the Parish. Many valuable memorials have been placed in the new Church, a list of which will be given next year.

The debt on the Rectory has been greatly reduced during the past year; in fact, nearly paid off. A Parish House is to be erected as soon as the fund necessary for that object is completed. The Church was enlarged last year, and is scarcely large enough now to accommodate the ever-increasing congregation. A vested choir started a few months ago adds much to the beauty of the services. A number of handsome gifts have been received for the interior of our beautiful Church.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochical or missionary charge :

THE REV. STURGES ALLEN, O.H.C.

"During the past two years I have been residing at Holy Cross House, Westminster, Md. I have celebrated the Holy Eucharist nearly every day ; have said Morning and Evening Prayer daily ; have given a few addresses in the chapel of the Order of the Holy Cross, and preached a few times in New York City."

THE REV. WM. S. BOARDMAN.

"I beg leave to report to you that since my return from Europe I have officiated in various churches and chapels under your jurisdiction as occasion presented. Also, I assisted in St. Peter's-by-the-Sea at Narragansett Pier during the past summer."

THE REV. C. W. E. BODY, D.D.,

"Begs to report that in addition to the discharge of his duties as Professor of Old Testament Interpretation in the General Theological Seminary, he has delivered a number of sermons and addresses in various churches of the Diocese, and during the summer vacation in the Diocese of New Hampshire."

THE REV. J. W. BONHAM, M.D.,

"Respectfully reports : That through illness he was unable to officiate during part of the year since the last Diocesan Convention."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

"Respectfully reports : During the last twelve months, I have officiated as often as I have had opportunity."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York, that during the past Conventional year his clerical work has been confined to the discharge of his duties as a Professor in the General Theological Seminary."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports : That during the Conventional year he has rendered assistance from time to time to the Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, to the Rector of St. Luke's Church, and to the Rector of the Church of the Intercession in New York City."

THE REV. WILLIAM DU HAMEL.

"It is my pleasure to report to you that I have been officiating during the past year at All Saints' Church, this place; St. John's Church, Little Hill, and St. George's Chapel, Holleyville, Del."

REHOBOTH, DEL.

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports: That during the last year he has been more than ever absorbed in educational and literary work. His long vacation, however, he has just spent in Halifax and other towns in Nova Scotia, and wherever he has been he has officiated constantly."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"I beg leave respectfully to report: That during the past year I have occasionally assisted in the services of the Church in different places. During the past summer I officiated and preached in Stony Creek, Conn."

THE REV. J. GOTTFRIED HAMMARSKÖLD.

"In accordance with canonical requirements I beg leave to most respectfully report that during the year ending September 1, 1899, I have, in different dioceses, attended to the duties connected with my office as general missionary to Swedes. During the year past I have conducted 129 services, taken part in 41, preached 107 sermons, delivered 18 addresses, administered Holy Communion 37 times, baptized 21 children, married 5 couples, and officiated at 7 funerals."

THE REV. A. N. HENSHAW, PH.D.

"As I have already informed you, I assumed the charge of the Department of English and History in the Plattsburgh State Normal School in October last. Since then I have assisted almost every Sunday in the services of the parish church in Plattsburgh, and have preached from time to time."

THE VERY REV. EUGENE AUGUSTUS HOFFMAN, D.D. (OXON.), LL.D, D.C.L.,
Dean of the General Theological Seminary,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other dioceses. He has baptized 1 person, and officiated at 1 marriage and 2 burials, all of which are recorded in the registers of the parishes to which the parties belonged."

THE REV. WILLIAM HUCKEL

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Conventional year he has been engaged in the public services of the Church."

THE REV. JAMES O. S. HUNTINGTON.

"I desire to report to you, as being a presbyter in the Diocese of New York, that during the past year my residence has been at Holy Cross House, Westminster, Maryland, where I have continued to act as Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross. During the year I have been absent from Westminster about two-thirds of the time, conducting missions and retreats, and holding conferences and preaching."

THE REV. T. A. HYLAND.

"I have very little to report for the past year. I preached 10 times and frequently assisted in the services of the Church. Rheumatic gout renders me almost a constant invalid."

THE REV. RALPH WOOD KENTON.

"Since November, 1897, I have officiated frequently, and have assisted occasionally in the services of the Church. Especially has it been my aim, and for the future it is my wish and purpose, to hold myself at the disposal of those clergymen who are in charge of parishes, and who, though in need of vacations, are yet unable to afford the otherwise necessary honorarium for a supply. In addition to my other work, I have lately been chosen a member of the Faculty of the Amity Theological School. In the light of this call and of my acceptance of it, and in order that no misapprehension may arise, I desire to affirm anew my belief in and adherence to the doctrine and discipline of the Church as held by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

"I report that during the past Conventional year I have maintained a daily celebration of the Holy Communion, since the beginning of Lent, and have officiated as temporary Chaplain at Priory Farm, Order of Brothers of Nazareth; funerals, 2."

THE REV. W. G. W. LEWIS.

"I beg leave respectfully to report: That since the first of November, 1898, I have celebrated the Holy Communion once, and have once officiated at a funeral; I have also assisted at public services a few times."

THE REV. ROBERT LOWRY.

"During the past year I have officiated, frequently, at St. Ann's Church, Morrisania, at the request of the Rector, the Rev. Gibson W. Harris."

THE REV. C. JULIUS LJUNGGREN.

"Permit me to report that during the past Conventional year I have been in charge of St. Ansgarins' Swedish Parish, at Providence, in the Diocese of Rhode Island."

THE REV. GEORGE NATTRESS.

"Believing it to be my duty to send you an account of my doings during the past year, up to May 1st, I desire to submit the following: I have celebrated the Holy Communion 6 times, conducted morning and evening prayer 25 times, preached 84 times, and baptized 1 infant."

THE REV. J. NEWTON PERKINS

"Respectfully reports: That, since the last Diocesan Convention, he has officiated on Sunday, as opportunity has been afforded, in reading service and preaching for his clerical brethren, and at other times has been engaged in the work of the Church Building Fund. When not so engaged on Sundays, he has, by invitation of the Bishop of Long Island, taken charge of the Chapel at Bellport."

THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE

"Begs to report: That during the past year he has been engaged in work at the Church Missions House. He has officiated occasionally in several parishes in the Diocese, and preached on the missions of the Church."

THE REV. THOMAS RICHEY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has been regularly engaged in the discharge of his duties as Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the General Theological Seminary. During the past year he has married 1 couple, baptized 2 infants, buried 2 persons, and in addition to occasional services in the city of New York, has done missionary duty during June, July, and August at Amagansett, L. I."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That the congregation of St. John's Parish, Sandwich, Mass., has, after waiting for more than 'thirty and eight years' (St. John, v. 5), a most suitable place of worship, with an exceptionally beautiful 'in memoriam' window. The Church was consecrated by Bishop Lawrence, on St. John the Baptist's Day, and is now in charge of a resident rector, Rev. E. W. Bullock. Dr. Roberts assists, occasionally, in the church services, and solemnized 1 marriage."

THE REV. J. CHARLES ROPER, D.D.,

"Begs respectfully to report: That during the earlier months of the year he is obliged to confine himself wholly to his duties at the General Theological Seminary. From January onwards he has been able, in addition to his professional duties, to preach on an average once in each week. During Lent he preached 4 courses of sermons each week, and upon 4 occasions during the year he has given addresses on Days of Retreat and at special devotional services. He has celebrated the Holy Communion at least once in every week throughout the year."

THE REV. LIVINGSTON ROWE SCHUYLER, M.A., S.T.B.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Assistant to the Professor of History in the College of the City of New York, and has frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other dioceses. His official acts are recorded in the registers of the parishes served."

THE REV. GEORGE SEABURY

"Respectfully reports: That he has been unusually unwell during the whole of the past Conventional year. With a single exception he has taken no part in the public services of the Church, save as a worshipper, and has been able to attend Church only under very favorable physical conditions."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has attended as usual, since the date of his last report, May 1, 1898, to the duties of his professorship in the General Theological Seminary; and has exercised his ministry as occasion required, having officiated in celebrating Holy Eucharist 25 times; assisting at celebrations, 15 times; reading morning and evening prayer, 40 times; preaching, 18 times; funeral, 1; assisting in services, 62 times; catechetical lectures, 43 times."

THE REV. J. W. SHACKELFORD, D.D.

"I beg respectfully to report that during the past year my infirmities have been so great that I have been quite unable to attempt any public duty."

THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.

"In addition to continuing pastoral relations, as Rector Emeritus, with my dear old parishioners of St. James' Church, and officiating for them at baptisms, marriages, and funerals, I have preached very frequently in many churches, and have been busy with my duties as General Secretary pro tem. of the Church Congress."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"During the year ending August 31, 1899, I have celebrated the Holy Communion, 142 times; assisted at the same, 11 times; said the Litany, 47 times; Matins, 122 times; Evensong, 112 times; short offices, 33 times; administered Holy Baptism, 6 times; solemnized Holy Matrimony, 5 times; officiated at the churching of women, 5 times; officiated at the burial of the dead, 3 times; gave religious instruction, 28 times; preached, 67 times; made 49 pastoral visits."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT.

"During the past year I have not been officially connected with any parish. I have, however, regularly devoted a portion of my time to work in several missions in the Diocese of New York."

THE REV. AUGUST ULMANN, D.D.,

"Begs leave to report: That in addition to his duties as Rector of Trinity School he has helped several brethren in their parish and missionary work."

THE REV. R. R. UPJOHN.

"I would beg leave to report: That during the last Convention year I continued as assistant at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, until January 1, 1899; that later I was engaged as Chaplain at St. Michael's Home, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and that at present I am in charge of the services at St. John's Church, Bayonne, N. J., during the absence of the Rector."

THE REV. MAUNSELL VAN RENSSELAER, D.D.,

"Begs leave to report: That during the past Convention year he has continued to act as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation for Crippled and Incurable Children, and has officiated at 2 funerals."

THE REV. ERNEST VOORHIS.

"In accordance with requirements of the Canon, I respectfully beg to report that during the past Conventional year, acting as missionary for the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, I have officiated at Ludlow Street Jail and the Tombs Prison, and when requested I have occasionally taken duty at various churches in the Diocese. My educational work occupies the greater part of my time during the scholastic year."

THE REV. FRANCIS WASHBURN

"Reports that during the past year he has officiated 51 times; married 8 couples; administered 1 baptism; officiated at 1 funeral, and administered Holy Communion 6 times."

THE REV. BENJAMIN WEBB

"Respectfully submits the following report for the year ending August 31, 1899: I have celebrated the Holy Communion eighty-two times in public, and once in private at Communion of the Sick, ministered Holy Baptism once (to an infant); made about twenty visitations of the sick; rendered the office for the Burial of the Dead once; Morning Prayer four times (also assisting once); and Evening Prayer twice, and preached once. Some of these services were rendered upon request in behalf of old parishioners of All Angels' Church, New York City, and have been duly reported for record there."

Legacies, not included in Parochial Reports

Grand Total for All Objects*..... $3,890,752 21

* This is undoubtedly far below the real amount given by the Diocese for religious and charitable purposes.

Year after year the Secretary has added this note to the table of contributions. Under "Special Offerings, including Legacies" he has included such extraordinary gifts as have come to his knowledge. This year our own figures on this page show how utterly inadequate are the parochial reports to show the amount given by this Diocese for charitable and religious purposes. The amount given for Diocesan Missions is nearly double the amount reported in the parochial reports for all diocesan purposes, while the amount reported by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions is nearly $50,000 in excess of the amount contributed for all objects outside the Diocese.

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ;
October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; and September 26, 1889.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being ; or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause occurring after the designation of the place of the meeting of the Annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church ; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee ; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1884 ; and amended October 4, 1889 ; October 1, 1841 : September 30, 1842 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 27, 1844 ; September 26 and 30, 1845 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1851 ; October 1, 1852 ; September 29, 1859 ; September 28, 1860 ; October 2, 1863 ; September 27, 1866 ; November 15, 1867 ; September 29, 1870 ; September 28, 1873 ; September 25, 1873 ; September 28, 1877 ; September 26, 1884 ; October 1, 1885 ; September 30 and October 1, 1886 ; September 29, 1887 ; September 27, 1888 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 25, 1890 ; and October 1, 1891 ; September 27 and 28, 1893 ; September 27, 1894 ; September 26, 1895 ; October 1, 1896 ; September 30, 1897 ; September 29, 1898.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 16. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 17. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose ; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention. •

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals ; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose ; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention.

* Canon XX., Sec. 5, Title I.

And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned ; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur. •

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties ; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Clergyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same ; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries ; [3] to have full management of its funds ; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Bishop, and confirmed by the Archdeaconry at a regular meeting, and shall continue in office until his successor be appointed. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions ; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry ; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry ; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese ; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items :

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel ; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention ; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President:

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections: one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese.

(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.

(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(5) Report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.

- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Society for promoting Religion and Learning.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and election of Trustees.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
- 8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 11. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- 12. Report of the Committee on Canons.
- 13. Reports of Special Committees.
- 14. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling the names of members not present before.
- 4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

4 VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federal Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
- 8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 11. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.

the 1990s, the incidence of S. flexneri has increased in the United Kingdom [10]. In the United States, S. flexneri has been reported as the most common serotype in children with acute bacterial dysentery [11].

There is a paucity of data on the epidemiology of S. flexneri in the United Kingdom. In the 1980s, S. flexneri was the most commonly isolated serotype from patients with acute bacterial dysentery in the United Kingdom [12].
